A WILD RIDE'S END

California Highway Patrol officers helped 61-year-old Theodore T. Carr of 160 Fairway Drive, Novato, from his car at 5:20 p.m. yesterday after it careened off a 12-foot embankment from Highway 101, one mile north of Highway 37. Carr, who was treated for cuts on his head, told officers he was travelling north at 65 miles an hour when his car swerved onto the center divider, then careened back across the road and over the edge.

Gov. Brown Will Join Long Beach Law Firm

Plans On Limited Politics

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown announced today he will practice law in Los Angeles and San Francisco, and warned Democrats that until the Vietnam war is ended "the party in power will have difficulty because it is really draining us dry."

In a farewell news conference, Brown — defeated by Republican Ronald Reagan in November — said the Communists in Vietnam "must be stopped."

MOST IMPORTANT

But looking back on the crushing defeat that retired him from public life, Brown said "everything else becomes subordinated to the fact that men 18 to 25 are being taken away to fight."

Brown said he will become a partner in the Long Beach law firm of Ball, Hunt, and Hart with an office in Beverly Hills. The firm also will open an office in San Francisco, to which he will commute "two or three times a month."

Brown talked freely of politics and state problems in the last news conference he plans to hold in the Capitol, where he has served as governor since 1959. He:

DEATH ROW PLANS

Said he may commute the death sentences of "some" of the men awaiting exeuction on Death Row in San Quentin. And he disclosed he is considering removing the "life without possibility of parole" restriction on 16 of the 18 men whose death sentences he previously has commuted.

San Quentin Warden Fred Dickson had advised him that "in some of these cases it would be better for prison morale if they thought they could get out," Brown said.

Disagreed with some Democratic governors who have indicated President Johnson must take some of the blame for Democratic defeats in November. He said he hopes Johnson would be renominated and re-elected in 1968. But he also said the Democratic National Com-

Gnoss, Storer Block Move To Raise Aide To $25,000

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Three Marin County supervisors yesterday tried in vain to break the stubborn stand of two who refused to approve more than a 10 per cent raise for County Administrator Alan Bruce.

Supervisors Thomas T. Storer and William A. Gnoss prevailed, and a raise from $21,000 to $23,100 rather than the $25,000 wanted by the others was approved.

The raise for the administrator was among 10 granted by the board yesterday. Generally they followed the pattern of 5 per cent for each year where there had been no change. But when the board arrived at Bruce at the bottom of the list, chairman Byron W. Leydecker proposed an increase to $25,000.

He argued that the $21,000 set two years ago was too low, that the director of Marin Municipal Water District, with a smaller budget, receives $25,000 a year, the superintendent of Tamalpais High School District $27,500, and the county counsel will get $24,000 a year come July.

"It's a rainy day in hell when the attorney gets more than the chief executive," Leydecker said.

Gnoss and Storer did not seem bothered by the precipitation.

"You better talk to Mr. Storer," Gnoss said. "You're not going to change my mind." Gnoss's argument was that the administrator should receive no more percentage raise than regular employees had received in step increases in the past two years.

Personnel Director Robert D. Elliott argued that with salary scale adjustments, the average increase for employees had been more than 10 per cent in two years.

"You might as well give up on me, too," Storer said. His argument was that pay should be based on that in comparable size counties for administrators.

At least four supervisors had to vote for the change in pay, since the action required a transfer from a $10,000 executive salary reserve set up in this year's budget.

Asst. County Auditor-Controller George R. Donaldson said today the total of increases granted yesterday will mean withdrawal of $7,700 in pay and fringe benefits from the fund.

Although he sat in the board chambers from 10 a.m. on, waiting, Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of Community Mental Health Services, now getting $1,625 a month, received no raise.

The reasoning of the board was that the position would be under review next month in connection with methods of administering the community mental health center to be constructed at Marin General Hospital.

The board also decided that Arliegh R. Sewell, director of data processing, should remain at $1,225 a month, and that Public Defender Jerome Durham should remain at $1,333 a month, because adjustments had been made on both salaries earlier this year.

Ten per cent raises were granted Probation Officer Walter Busher, from $1,250 to $1,375 a month. Medical Director Michael Scholl (half time) from $900 to $990, and Welfare Director Betty L. Presley, from $1,-

U.S. Jets Make Missile Kills On Red Planes

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Navy jets from the aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk intercepted two enemy aircraft menacing ships of the U.S. 7th Fleet off North Vietnam and apparently shot them down with air-to-air missiles, a U.S. Navy spokesman said today.

The nuclear-powered cruiser USS Long Beach which serves as flagship for the 7th Fleet spotted two slow moving aircraft on its radar last night and flashed an alert that sent two F-4B Phantom interceptors screaming into the air.

The 1,200 mile per hour Phantoms also picked up the approaching planes on their radar and launched air-to-air missiles. The blips disappeared from the radar screen and the Navy spokesman said the intruding planes apparently were shot down.

The spokesman said radar aboard the Long Beach — the only nuclear powered cruiser in the U.S. Navy—picked up

Marin Hospital Raises Room Rates $7 A Day

By STEPHEN COOK

For the third time in less than a year, Marin Hospital District Board last night hiked room rates at Marin General Hospital.

Before last Jan 25, a patient could occupy a semi-private room at the hospital for $29 a day. Last night's unanimous board action brings the cost to $45 a day.

The board approved, with little comment, a $7 increase on most rooms in the hospital to pay for salary increases and some minor capital improvements.

Effective Jan. 1, rates for semi-private rooms will increase from $38 to $45 a day. Private rooms will raise from $41-$47 to $48-$54 a day. Cost of intensive care unit beds will rise from $80 to $87 a day. Cost of unmonitored beds in the heart unit will rise from $43 to $50 a day. Nursery beds will increase $2, from $18 to $20 a day.

"I'd be much more concerned about these increases if most people didn't have some kind of third party payment. I don't see how any person could possibly meet these rates without some kind of insurance coverage," said board president Marion C. Ibach.

Director Irving Chapman said the rate increase keeps Marin General competitive with other Marin hospitals. Ross and Novato General hospitals recently increased cost of semi-private rooms to $46 a day.

The increase was approved after the board voted for a $108,-216 raise in salaries and fringe benefits for non-nursing personnel at the hospital. Registered nurses at the hospital won $225,-964 in such increases in November.

Altogether, the raises will cost the hospital $334,180 a year. They are passed on to the patient at an increased cost of $5.68 a day, according to administrator Ray K. Bollinger.

Remainder of the room rate increases come for paying $75,-000 for new radiology equipment and $30,580 for a temporary archive building and remodeling inside the hospital.

Bollinger said total increased cost per patient day is $7.48, but that the difference of $20,160 in revenue will be made up by cutting back some hospital expenses.

"The rate increase doesn't quite cover it because we were determined to keep the increase as low as possible," said Chapman, a member of the hospital's personnel committee.

The hospital board approved other room rate increases in January and August this year. Increased operating expenses was cited as reason for the first increase. Salary raises for nurses and other hospital personnel were responsible for the August increase.

Lobbyist To Fight Span Control

Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors today voted to hire a lobbyist and pay him up to $16,000 to thwart efforts to give control of the bridge to the state.

Legislation to dissolve the district and give the state control of the span is to be introduced by Sens. J. Eugene McAteer of San Francisco and John F. McCarthy of Marin.

The vote for the lobbyist was 10 to 3, with one abstention. Thomas D. Hardcastle and George H. Ludy, Marin representatives on the board, voted in favor.

Joseph J. Diviny, director from San Francisco, argued that it was the intention of the state when the bridge was built that, when it was paid off, tolls would be doled out to the six counties served for highway construction.

The directors elected John Nelson of Mendocino, president of the district for 1967. However, outgoing president L. E. Castener of Sonoma County resigned to permit Alvin F. Derre, first vice president who was not renominated to the board by San Francisco's supervisors Monday, to serve as president for three days.

Two Felons Linked To 'Kidnaping'

Two San Quentin Prison escapees were sought today in connection with the mysterious disappearance of the 25-year credit manager of Harold's Club in Reno.

Reno police expressed fear that Mrs. Edith Grisham, 58, the casino credit manager, had been kidnaped.

She was last seen, they reported, Monday in the company of a man, cashing a check in a shopping center. Another man and a woman were in her car in the parking lot.

The men, said Reno police, may be Ernest Edgar Little and Richard Henry Smith, who walked away from the San Quentin ranch dormitory on Dec. 4. The Reno officers said they had information both were in the area, along with Little's common-law wife, Shirley Soars, a San Joaquin County waitress.

Mrs. Grisham was regarded as absolutely dependable by owners of Harold's Club. In her 25 years as credit manager there, she has helped police numerous times to capture bad check artists.

Little, 38, was serrving a six months-to-14 years sentence in San Quentain on three counts of bad checks in Santa Clara and Stanislaus counties. His companion in the escape, Smith, 28, was serving a six months-to-15 year sentence on two counts of burglaries of high schools in Sacramento County. Little entered prison last April; Smith, on Feb. 1, 1965.

Crane Causes Power Failure

Electric power failed this morning throughout most of Southern Marin because a crane flew into a transformer on Gate Six Road, Sausalito, a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. spokesman said.

The crane short-circuited the transformer, reported Harry Kiemele, general foreman of the electric department.

Power was out from 8:03 a.m. in Marinship, Marin City, Tamalpais, Homeastead and Tennessee valleys, Southern Mill Valley, Muir Beach, Stinson Beach and Bolinas.

Winter Brings Better Weather

Winter's first day came to Marin County today, but warmer weather did, too.

The Weather Bureau predicted sunny skies and generally higher temperatures this afternoon, breaking a recent cold spell which dipped temperatures into the 30s in some areas at night.

Fair weather also was forecast for tomorrow, following patches of morning fog.

Temperatures climbed slightly last night in Marin. Minimum readings today were, 40 in Novato, 41 in Sausalito and San Anselmo, and 42 in Inverness. San Rafael's low was 43, three degrees higher than the previous night.

The thermometer read 50 in San Rafael at noon, as compared to 56 at noon yesterday.

Rudy The Reindeer's Nose Reported Stolen

Courthouse A 'White Elephant,' Would-Be Developer Declares

By FRANK FARRARA

The San Rafael Planning Commission last night heard pleas to re-zone the courthouse square in San Rafael before it is sold and have the courthouse removed as soon as possible.

Commissioners held a two and one-half hour public hearing on creating a new zoning district, limited commercial, and applying it to courthouse square.

Since last night was the first time commissioners had seen the revised version of the proposed ordinance, they continued the hearing until 7:30 p.m. Jan. 10 at city hall.

Burnell Van Dalsem of 1 Belle Avenue, San Rafael, said the courthouse has no historical value and "it would be a monument of stupidity" to retain it.

County supervisors' call for bids yesterday making retention of the courthouse for five years part of the agreement was "ill-advised," Van Dalsem said.

Richard Woods of Kentfield, who said he represented a group of potential developers, urged that the zoning be set. "We as potential developers want the ground rules spelled out at the beginning," he said.

Anyone talking about developing the square "should talk close to $4 million," Woods said. "It will attract new names to the city, bring more sales tax and put the land back on the tax roll," he declared.

The courthouse should be removed as soon as possible after the county moves out, Woods said. "We don't want to own an historical white elephant."

Planning Director Herbert G. Hotchner said courthouse square is "the key to the health of the central business district." What is done now will be the key to whether the existing stores can remain competitive, he said.

"There is a need to do something that will aid and abet the retail facilities and the parking facilities," Hotchner said.

Sig K. Herzog Jr., president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, urged that the city rezone the site before the county sells it. The park-like atmosphere should be retained, he said.

Harry Heifetz, who has offered the county $900,000 for the property with an agreement that the courthouse be retained, attended the session but did not comment. He was represented by attorney Raymond H. Shone, who said Heifetz proposes to use both the courthouse and the annex for office space and preserve the park area and "at least the exterior of the old courthouse."

Possibly in the future there would be commercial use, but "it's not my client's intention," Shone said.

Hotchner reviewed the proposed ordinance, which would ban offices on the first floor, except for offices for financial services, which would be established only by use permit or under planned unit development.

The proposed ordinance calls for retail operations on the ground floor.

"Could office use be made of the main floor of the courthouse?" asked Shone. The answer was no. "Could there be offices on the ground floor of the annex?" he asked. The answer was no.

Shone objected to ruling out the ground floor office space, stating that his client intended offices there.

Hotchner pointed out that the purpose of the ordinance is to create an area that is primarily retail oriented, with shopper and parking amenities and open area to preclude physical and visual congestion.

Reagan Names Clemency Aide

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Edwin Meese III, Alameda County deputy district attorney, was named Gov.-elect Ronald Reagan's clemency secretary today, an aide reported.

The clemency secretary advises the governor on death sentence cases and other criminal matters that come to his attention.

Meese is known in the Capitol as a legislative representative for district attorney groups and has testified on behalf of narcotics legislation and other criminal matters.

Meese, 33, is a Republican. He is scheduled to take his state job Jan. 16.

Greece's Premier Steps Down

Stephanopoulos

The 67-year-old premier's coalition government collapsed last night when Greece's conservative party, the National Radical Union (ERE), withdrew its support. The government took office in September 1965 after the nation's worst political crisis since the Communist civil war of 1947-49.

King Constantine accepted the premier's resignation and began consulting political leaders.

"The ERE does not want any other party to govern but the ERE," said Panayiotis Canelopoulos, the party's leader, in withdrawing support from the government.

Under the constitution, once a premier hands in his resignation, the king must either call for elections within 45 days or designate someone to try to form a new government.

VIET HOSPITAL DRAMA

Doctor Unaware Of Blast Danger

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP) — A Navy surgeon pulled a lethal M-79 rifle grenade from the throat of a U.S. Marine private last night and showed it around the operating room before he found out it might kill the eight persons in the room.

"I didn't know what it was," said the surgeon, Lt. Cmdr. James Chandler of San Francisco. "All the military training I ever had was a couple of weeks where they say 'okay, this is a gun.'"

The patient's name was withheld until his relatives are notified.

The Marine, who also had a compound fracture of his right leg from a bullet, was brought to the Da Nang "Charlie" medical hospital last night.

The M-79, round — dome shaped, an inch and a half in had crashed through the Marine's right lower jawbone, traveled through the thick part of the tongue and stopped a fraction of an inch from the soft skin below the lower left jawbone.

Chandler said that before the five-hour operation he had no idea what he was going after.

He would have sandbagged the operating table and sought expert advice if he had known, Chandler said.

The doctor could see part of the grenade's shiny dome at the rear of the patient's mouth. Two attempts with forceps failed to get it. He reached in with his fingers and "it popped out."

As he showed it around the operating room, Chandler said, "The eyes popped out of the people who knew what it was."

"We've got to get it out of here," Chandler said when he learned what he had.

"I held it away from me in my left hand. I had the silly idea that if it blew up, I would still have my right hand. Of course, it would have blown me to bits.

"We got it out to the helicopter pad (about 30 yards from the hospital). I put it down, took about four steps slowly, then ran like hell."

The Marine private was wounded as he sat with his patrol near a road 11 miles southwest of Da Nang.

"He is a remarkable boy," Chandler said. "He could barely breathe and was in danger of suffocating. He was quite conscious. If he had panicked, he might not have made it."

Famed Hollywood Canteen Is Razed

From 1942 until shortly after the war ended in 1945, the canteen played host to more than 2 million servicemen, many of whom got to dance with the likes of Lana Turner, Betty Grable and Rita Hayworth.

It was founded by Bette Davis and the late John Garfield, and from the beginning the top entertainers in the country showed up to entertain its eager audiences.

Tribunal Rules Campaign Law Too Sweeping

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The State Supreme Court yesterday day ruled unconstitutional a law that prohibits public employees from participating in political campaigns involving personnel in the agency or office where they work.

In a 5-2 decision, the court held that the law was too sweeping.

The majority opinion, written by Associate Justice Mathew O. Tobriner, said that the law "would prevent an employee of a city from participating in a campaign of any officer of the city, and perhaps even his county, however remote might be the working relationship between such employee and officer."

The ruling came in a case involving Nellie Bagley, a nurse's aide fired from her job in 1964 at Washington Township Hospital in Alameda County for taking part in a campaign to recall certain directors of the hospital district.

Judges said that Miss Bagley campaigned only on off-duty hours and did not refer to her hospital position while doing so.

Reversed was the Alameda County Superior Court's dismissal of Miss Bagley's suit for restoration of her job and for back wages. The Supreme Court ordered that her case be heard.

Cong Stepping Up Drive To Help Finance Fighting

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The Viet Cong have stepped up their war bond drives and their taxes on South Vietnam's peasants and merchants to meet the rising cost fo the Communist war effort, U.S. officials say.

In a study titled "Prospects for the Viet Cong," the U.S. AID mission in Saigon reports that Communist war bonds were virtually unknown 18 months ago.

But now, the report said, the National Liberation Front — the political arm of the Viet Cong — is estimated to raise 40 per cent of its budget by bond sales.

Another 40 per cent comes from taxes and duties collected at road blocks. The remaining 20 per cent comes from outside South Vietnam, presumably from Hanoi.

"The so-called Viet Cong war bond drive is now appearing in all parts of the country," the report said. "When a 'war bond sales team' visits a village every person or family is expected to buy a certain number."

In a Communist-controlled village the family rate is 7,000 to 10,000 piasters — about $49 to $70.

Military Spends Less During Last Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The military spent $23 million less in November than October — but the $5.26 billion November total was still far above original budget estimates.

The aircraft were first spotted about 25 miles northeast of Than Hoa, a coastal city about 75 miles southwest of Hanoi. They were about 25 miles offshore over the Tonkin Gulf when sighted.

It also was not known immediately if the approaching planes could have been jets. However, the radar showed them to be "slow moving."

It was the second time in recent months U.S. planes scrambled to meet approaching planes in the Gulf of Tonkin. In the previous case the planes were intercepted and at least one was shot down.

On the peace front, the 21st General Assembly of the United Nations passed into history today no closer to finding a solution to the Vietnam crisis than at its start three months ago.

Secretary General Thant, encouraged by a U.S. request for help to end the war but cold-shouldered by the Communists, pursued "quite diplomacy" in seeking to extend an agreed Christmas truce into a lasting Vietnamese ceasefire.

The Soviet Union, Communist China and the Viet Cong have all attacked Thant's efforts as being part of a U.S. peace talk "fraud."

In the ground war U.S. Marines beat back two savage Communist machinegun attacks in the coastal area below the Demilitarized Zone border between North and South Vietnam where the North Vietnamese have been trying to build up their forces for a major drive southward.

While the new upsurge of bloody fighting was underway near the ancient imperial city of Hue and just south of the sprawling Marine headquarters at Da Nang, U.S. B52 bombers lashed the DMZ and Communist infiltration routes through the jungles to the south with hundreds of tons of bombs.

350 to $1,485. None had received an increase in two years.

Variance from the 5 per cent a year formula was made in the case of Public Works Director Donald R. Frost, from $1,500 to $1,666, an 11 per cent raise. This was termed a merit raise for good work. The same went to Parks and Recreation Director Pierre W. Joske, from $1,200 to $1,280, and to Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, from $1,500 to $1,600. Both 6.6 per cent raises. Neither Joske nor Zucker has yet been with the county a year.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, with the last adjustment the first of this year, will get a raise from $1,166 to $1,225; Public Health Director Carolyn B. Albrecht, with last adjustment in July, 1965, from $1,500 to $1,575, and Director of Economic Development John M. Douglas, hired the first of this year, from $1,300 to $1,365, all 5 per cent raises.

Woman's Death Cause Unknown

Identity and cause of death of a woman whose body was found Sunday on the Tiburon peninsula remained unknown today, Undersheriff Sidney Stinson reported.

He said toxicology reports will not be completed for about 10 days, and there have been no results of a state-wide bulletin asking police agencies for any matching description of a missing person.

The body was found about 25 feet down an embankment off Paradise Drive. The woman, believed dead about three months, was described as middle-aged, about five feet, one-inch tall, weighing about 95 pounds, and wearing a light tan trench coat and white leather loafer shoes.

Officers said there was no indication of foul play, but possibility of homocide has not been ruled out.

posed ordinance would include retail stores, (except those relating to the automobile industry), restaurant, (except drive-ins), personal service establishments, and accessory uses.

Permitted by use permit only would be hotels, commercial parking over and above the required parking, financial services, banks and savings institutions, stock brokers, loan agencies and similar institutions, and commercial entertainment and recreation.

The proposed ordinance also calls for a "front yard" of 60 by 265 feet along Fourth Street, but would permit structures to occupy 35 per cent of the "front yard" to allow flexibility of plans. Maximum lot coverage would be 50 per cent.

Maximum floor area would be 158,000 square feet. Hotchner said a developer could use this floor area horizontally or vertically.

The proposed ordinance also requires off-street parking, and loading zones screened from pedestrians on adjoining streets.

The commission recommended that the city council try to have the county remove the clause to retain the courthouse for five years from its call for bids on the site to be opened Feb. 14.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said that when the city will require that the courthouse buildings meet the city building codes, and that any developer submit an engineer's report on whether the buildings meet earthquake and wind load standards.

"Under the rules adopted today (by supervisors) we have only one bidder," Severin contended.

BROWN

mittee must be revamped in the future.

"The Republican party did a far better job," said Brown. He said former President Eisenhower called prominent Republicans in California and helped persuade them to join the Reagan campaign, even though they were leaning towards Brown after the primary.

Said he was going to form an advisory group of prominent Democrats "to see that the principles of the party are articulated, particularly in Southern California."

The small, informal group, he said, will make no endorsements. He said he hoped defeated State Controller Alan Cranston would join, but said he didn't know if elected officials, such as Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, would be asked.

On the death penalty, Brown said he will fight for "as long as I'm alive" for the repeal of capital punishment.

"How much better would it be to cast these men in a cell for the rest of their lives," he said.

Brown said he hoped to retain an interest in politics, but be a "lawyer, not a political lawyer."

At one time, he said, he considered retiring, but "I'm too old to start all over again, and I'm too young to retire."

Brown revealed he may conduct a government seminar at the University California at Los Angeles or at UC davis, and may lecture in law at the UCLA law school or another Southern California law school.

His San Francisco office, he said, will be in the offices of a firm in which his son-in-law Joseph Kelly is a partner.

In his only critical reference to Reagan, Brown said it is "a slander on the state of California" for the incoming governor to seek advice from Ohio's finance director. He said the two states had different problems.

Firm Is Seeking City Annexation

Maggiora and Ghilotti Inc. has applied for annexation of 32.7 acress on Highway 17 near the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge to the City of San Rafael.

The land, on the south side of the highway, was the subject of a long debate before the county planning commission and board of supervisors some months ago, when the owners tried in vain to have the zone changed from industrial park to less restrictive industrial control.

The annexation proposal will be heard by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission Jan. 5.

Still No Trace Of Otto Meyer

Still no trace has been found of Otto H. Meyer, former chief building inspector for Marin County, feared the victim of a hiking accident in the Santa Cruz Mountains near Boulder Creek, according to the Santa Cruz sheriff's office.

Meyer left for vacation from the Santa Cruz County Public Works Department Nov. 18 and has not been seen since. He was reported missing Nov. 28 by his son, Colton W. Meyer of El Sobrante.

Teen-Age Driver Reports Threat With A Pistol

Four teen-age boys from Larkspur told San Rafael police last night they had been threatened with a pistol by the driver of the car ahead of them as they were stopped a a Fourth Street intersection.

William J. Fowler, 16, of 34 Laurel Avenue, said he and three friends were driving west on Fourth Street at 11:15 p. m. and stopped behind a whtie Ford Mustang at B Street. The driver of the Mustang emerged from his car, Fowler said, and accused him of driving with his bright lights on.

Fowler denied this and an argument ensued. The other driver, described as blond, in his early 20s, about 6-foot-2 and 180 pounds, went back to his car, reached under his front seat, and pulled out a pistol. He cocked it and aimed it at Fowler, the youth reported, but did not fire.

Roth Will Take Oath On Friday

Hadden W. Roth, 36, will be sworn in as judge of Marin Municipal Court in private ceremony at 10 a.m. Friday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court.

He succeeds the late Judge Leonard A. Thomas, who died Dec. 3 after a brief illness.

Roth, who said only judges, his family, and a few close friends will attend the oath-taking in Judge Wilson's chambers, said: "I am honored and very happy. This appointment (by Gov. Edmund G. Brown) is saddened, however, by the untimely death of my firend, Leonard Thomas. Out of respect to his memory, there will be no public ceremony."

Members Pledge Swim Club Cash

Two alternate plans were adopted last night to raise money by Dec. 31 to meet the final loan payment of $18,000 by the Strawberry Swim Club to the Strawberry Recreation District for its pool, club president Don Fraser reported today.

In a special meeting, some members agreed to pay an assessment of $150 before midnight, Dec. 31.

"We're hoping we can save the pool from being taken over to the recreation district," said Fraser. The club is still short about $3,000 of the needed amount, he said.

Lace, once a hand operation, has been made by machine since the 18th century.

OBITUARIES

Theodore A. Thoney Dies At 76

Theodore A. A. Thoney, 76, a resident of Mill Valley for 62 years, died Monday in a San Francisco hospital following a brief illness.

A native of San Francisco, he lived all his life in California. He resided at 15 Sunnyside Avenue.

A veteran of World War I, he was a member of Mill Valley Post 284 of the American Legion.

As a carpenter, Thoney built many of the old homes in Mill Valley. He also was active in the early volunteer fire department and worked on the Mount Tamalpais and Muir Woods scenic railway.

He is survived by a sister, Sister M. Sadoc, O.P. of Stockton, and three brothers, Albert H. Thoney of San Francisco, Vollmar F. and Clinton L. Thoney of Mill Valley.

Requiem Mass will be offered Friday at 9:30 a.m. at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Mill Valley. Cortege will form at 9 a.m. at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the mortuary.

ALBERT J. TWIDDY

Albert J. Twiddy of 101 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, died in a local hospital yesterday after a short illness. He was 79.

A native of England, Twiddy lived in Marin County two years and in California 43 years. A retired machinist, he had worked for the American Can Co. He was a member of the Salvation Army.

He is survived by a brother, Noel Twiddy of San Rafael.

Funeral will be at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Interment will be private.

OTIS STRUTHERS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Otis C. Struthers, one of the top-notch engineers who built San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge, is dead at 77, a freeway traffic victim.

Struthers was killed yesterday when he apparently suffered a heart attack while driving, then ran into the rear end of another car, police said.

DAVID B. WALKER

David B. Walker of 516 Whitewood Drive, Marinwood, a marine engineer who served with Pacific Tankers on voyages between New York and San Francisco through the Panama Canal, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness. He was 77.

A native of North Ireland, he lived in Marin County and California since 1932. He left the steamship company to be a test engineer at Marinship in Sausalito during World War II and retired after the war.

He is survived by three sons, Robert A. Walker of San Rafael, Thomas A. Walker of Santa Clara, and Lennox A. Walker of Concord; a daughter, Elizabeth M. Smith of San Rafael and 12 grandchildren.

Private funeral was held today at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael. Interment was also private. The family requested contributions to the American Cancer Society.

MINNA LUTJENS

Funeral for Mrs. Minna Lutjens, sister of Dietrich Vossbrink of San Rafael, was held yesterday at B. C. Wallace Mortuary in Stockton. Burial was private.

Mrs. Lutjens, 91, died Saturday in a Stockton hospital after a brief illness.

A native of Germany, she lived in San Francisco for about 60 years. She moved to Stockton in 1959.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Anna E. Bigall of Stockton; two sons, William F. E. Lutjens of Sunnyvale and Fred Lutjens of San Francisco; her brother; eight grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

W. WALLACE HAYES

Funeral for W. Wallace Hayes, a former trustee of Tamalpais High School district for 10 years, will be 2 p.m. Friday at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

A native of Kansas, he lived in California for 44 years, the last 35 in Marin County. He resided for 25 years at 81 Elm Avenue, Mill Valley.

A pharmacist for 31 years, he was an owner of Lockwood's pharmacies in Mill Valley and Kentfield and Rossi Brothers Pharmacy in San Anselmo.

He served as a high school district trustee from September, 1951, to June, 1961, when he retired because of business pressures.

He was president of Mill Valley Rotary Club in 1951.

He is survived by his wife, Bernena; a son, Arleigh Hayes of San Mateo; three daughters, Mrs. Janet Oyen of Kentfield, Mrs. Nancy Godtfredsen of Lake Tahoe, and Carol Hayes of Mill Valley; two brothers, Ashton Hayes of Santa Rosa and Clancy Hayes of San Francisco; a sister, Mrs. Della Peck of Lawrence,, Kan., and three grandchildren.

Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemtery, San Rafael. Friends may call, starting today, at the mortuary.

MABEL EASTMAN

Mrs. Mabel M. Eastman of San Francisco, a former resident of Sausalito, died yesterday in a nursing home in San Francisco, after a long illness. She was in her late 80s.

Mrs. Eastman was the widow of Frank H. Eastman, a retired employee of the Marin County Welfare Department. She was active in the Marin County Humane Society, and had written articles about cruelty to animals.

Mrs. Eastman was a resident of Marin for more than 20 years before she moved to San Francisco at the close of World War II after the death of her husband.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Paul N. Snyder of Pasadena, Tex., and Mrs. L. T. Walker of Temple, N.H., and a brother, Henry R. Ketchum of Galveston, Tex.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Halsted and Co., 1123 Sutter Street, San Francisco.

ANTI-WAR PICKETS—This scene, in front of the county courthouse in San Rafael, will be repeated daily through Saturday according to the Conference for New Politics, which organized the anti-war demonstration.

County May Build Isle In Audubon Bird Area

Possibility of a low-level island in the Audubon Society bird refuge east of Strawberry Point was revealed to county supervisors yesterday.

County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said that he has been talking with society representatives about the possibility of putting some of the spoils from the Saucelito Canal dredging project on the society's property.

"They appear to be receptive," Frost said.

He made the report in requesting authorization from the board to prepare an application to the Bay Conservation and Development Commission for dredging and filling in connection with the project.

The Army Corps of Engineers is making final study of the job, which would dig a boat channel along the alignment of Railroad Avenue, one of the underwater streets in Richardson Bay. Local contribution would be put up by an assessment district now being formed.

Asst. Public Works Director Arthur T. Knutson said that Bothin Estates has agreed to take 220,000 yards of fill. Other fill might be placed on the 10 acres the county hopes to purchase for Manzanita Marina Green. Knutson said there will be a total of 600,000 to 700,000 yards dredged, and the Audubon Island proposal could take care of a good deal of this.

Kettenhofen Asks Changes In Several Marin Agencies

Consolidation of the Local Agency Formation Commission with the city-county service committee, and changes in county public works and welfare departments were proposed yesterday by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen.

Supervisors did not discuss the ideas, but outgoing Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he would write his views on them by the time Kettenhofen brings them up again.

Kettenhofen said he was concerned about "a large degree of lost efficiency" in public works. He suggested sub-department heads in charge of road and engineering. He also proposed study of putting building inspection under the planning department, and said the central services might be combined with building maintenance.

On welfare, Kettenhofen referred to a "great cloud of mystery" in the operation, suggesting categorical (long-term) aid be handled by one department, with short term, general relief under another.

Head-On Crash Costs Five Lives

BEATTY, Nev. (UPI)—Five persons, including a county sheriff and undersheriff, were killed last night in a car-station wagon collision on a lonely desert highway.

They were identified as Nye County Sheriff George Barra, 63, and Undersheriff John Maslach, 26, both of Tonopah, Nev.; Fred Espinoza, 44, Gabbs, Nev., his wife, Frances, 45, and their 25-year-old daughter Dorothy.

Four other Espinozas were seriously injured and taken to a hospital in Las Vegas, Nev. They were identified as Fred Jr., 12, Andra, 8, Sophie, 16, and Sandra, 14.

Burglar Given A Second Term

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court yesterday gave Willie Elmer Brown, 26, a state prison term of one to 15 years for the second degree burglary of Marin County Real Estate Board offices in San Rafael.

He made the term concurrent with an identical one Brown is serving in San Quentin Prison for second degree burglary in Contra Costa County.

Brown, of Richmond, broke into the San Rafael firm at 255 West End Avenue, last Dec. 6. He was convicted in jury trial before Judge Haley on Nov. 3.

Larger Meeting Room For Structural Report

A special meeting of Mill Valley School District trustees on Dec. 27 at 8 p. m., to consider reconstruction of two classrooms at Homestead school has been shifted from the district office to the auditorium of Park School, Supt. G. R. McConnell said today.

The meeting was called in response to a report last week by structural engineers that the rooms failed to meet earthquake-resistance standards of the state's Field Act.

Repair of the two rooms would cost $24,000, engineers estimated.

Pickets Keep Cold Vigil Against War

By DAVID DIETZ

Thirty pickets, some of them children, maintained a cold, two-hour vigil yesterday outside the Marin County Courthouse in San Rafael in opposition to the Vietnam war.

It was the third day of picketing in what organizers call a "Christmas Week Vigil for Peace in Vietnam." The demonstration is scheduled to end Saturday.

Carrying "Ban the Bomb" signs and handing out leaflets, the pickets formed in front of the courthouse at 1 p.m. The leaflets mentioned U.N. Secretary General U Thant's criticism of the bombing of the Hanoi area, beseeched an end to the war, and asked passersby to join the Conference for New Politics, organizer of the demonstration.

Explaining the vigil, Mrs. Francis Steadman of 100 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera, a picket, said:

"It doesn't make sense that we're killing human beings at this time when we can be teaching them to love. This is the time of the year to stand up in opposition to war."

A panel truck passed on Fourth Street, and the driver yelled:

"They should send you all to Vietnam!"

"Merry Christmas," the pickets chorused back.

Most of the demonstrators were teen-agers. One girl said she was 11 years old.

"Anybody can be concerned," said Kim Green, 13, of San Rafael, defending his place in line. "Everybody should have something to work for, and I feel strongly about this situation."

Asked the opinion of his schoolmates and teachers about his demonstrating, Kim said:

"The teachers would probably say, 'Dirty little boy. Shouldn't do things like that. Naughty, naughty, naughty.' But one of my classmates came up to me the other day and said they agreed with me in what I'm doing."

On the courthouse steps, a group of young demonstrators and teen-agers disagreeing with their anti-war stand argued it out. Occasionally, an adult would join in.

The comotion drew little attention from shoppers across the street, where a sign reminded that Christmas was only four days away.

Meningitis On Disease List

Spinal meningitis was one of the communicable diseases reported to the Marin County Public Health Department last week.

Health officer Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht said a Fairfax infant was reported in Marin General Hospital suffering from the disease. "No obvious source of the infection was found," she said.

There were also 29 cases of streptococcus infections reported in the county for that period, she said, and one case of infectious hepatitis.

New President Of Retired Group

Other new officers of the group include Marcel E. Juilly, vice president; Charles W. Van Dyke, secretary and Mrs. Leah Jarrett, treasurer.

Deputy Back Home

Deputy Police Chief Joseph J. Brusatori of San Rafael has returned home from Marin General Hospital to recuperate from a heart ailment which placed him in the hospital Dec. 9.

THE FACES OF JESUS

Christ's Companions Were Various Sorts

(Second in a series)

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

A rough and disreputable crew reclined around the low semi-circular table at the house in Capernaum. Swagbellied vendors, sailors, fish picklers, camel drivers, crooked tax collectors and brawling stevedores from the city wharfs.

With lusty relish, they fed on broiled fresh mullet, dipping hot bread into the bowls of olive sauce and corn pottage, munching the spiced leeks and onions, washing it down with wine.

Among them, cultivating their company, was Jesus.

Toward the doorway, beyond the row of hanging lamps, stood a shadowy cluster of spectators who had wandered into the open court to watch, as often occurred. They whispered among themselves, "Extortioners . . . devil's spawn."

Two of Jesus' men, themselves brawny fishermen, edged over to the group. A sternly pious scholar demanded: "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

Jesus heard it, and He and the others paused in their meal. He looked about at them fondly. Indeed, they were a wayward lot, unstable, scorned, and they knew it, without pretense. They needed—wanted—reclaiming friendship.

Deliberately He wiped His mouth with a towel and turned toward the chastizers beyond the smoky light. "Those who are well have no need of a physician." He quoted the prophet Hosea, " 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice,' " and added:

"Go learn what this means . . . I came not to call the righteous, but sinners." Only the most thoroughly smug could have missed the irony.

It was not the first time, nor the last, that Jesus was reproached by the ranking, respected peers of His community for the liberality of His associations. He was an unreserved mixer. He snubbed no one.

He was a most comradely man. He had a yen for people.

And He observed that overstepping the conventional bounds of compatibility to consort freely with those outside it rankled the circumspect, no matter how you went at it—whether in His own glad way, or like His solemn forerunner, the austere, ascetic John the Baptist.

Once at the home of Martha and Mary, when the older sister grew upset about preparing supper and fumed at Mary for sitting immersed in talk with Jesus instead of helping in the kitchen, he minimized the distractions.

"Martha, Martha," He soothed, "you are anxious and troubled about many things." But personal communication mattered more than things impeding it. "Mary has chosen the good portion, which shall not be taken from her."

Another time, when his own assistants tried to chase off children flocking around him, He grew indignant. "Let the children come to Me, and do not hinder them."

Yet His was no condescending companionship, but rather an open, unstinted affection, flowing out to those around Him, whatever their condition. And it drew barbs. "He is mad . . . possessed of Beelzebub . . . a Samaritan!"

He had, in fact, held a long searching discussion with a Samaritan prostitute at Jacob's well, despite his countrymen's keen contempt for any of that race. His disciples were shocked. So was she, when He spoke to her.

"How is that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?"

But her brittle, jaded pose melted as they talked and she poured out her secret miseries, mistakes and yearnings. Afterward, she went off singing a new confidence — a tainted woman became the first of her sex known to win converts to Christ.

"For God sent His Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him."

Although He spent much time with the illiterate masses of the land, the despairing "amhaaretz," he also attracted the wealthy intellectuals and devoutly studious Pharisees, including the venerable Nicodemus.

"Rabbi," Nicodemus addressed Jesus, counting Him in the learned tradition of the Pharisees, "we know that you are a teacher come from God."

However, Nicodemus, Joseph of Arimathea, the great Gamaliel and other noted Pharisees sympathetic to Jesus' cause on Jerusalem's council, the Sanheddrin, were outnumbered by the impious Sadducees, collaborators with Rome's military rule.

Jesus also unashamedly sought out the lonely and despised. In front of a crowd in Jericho, He called out to Rome's rich, hated chief tax collector, Zacchaeus, a short, dumpy man who had climbed a tree to watch.

"Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for I must stay at your house today." The crowd muttered disdainfully. But before Jesus left, that grasping household gave way to warm benevolence.

". . . The Son of man came to seek and save the lost."

cows in Marin?

Oh, you've heard us girls say that on the radio hundreds of times. "Moo" is actually cowese for "Golly, it's great to be giving the finest milk served anywhere!" And we do. Have been since 1910, as a matter of fact. Might say we know the dairy business like the back of our hooves. But I'll bet a lot of you didn't know we've been living in Marin County for 3½ years now. We're proud of that, too. You people sure do grow good grass over here—yum, yum. So what about "FARMS IN BERKELEY?!" Gee, even cows move on to greener pastures.

Halprin Gets Contract For Sausalito Project

The Sausalito City Council last night approved a contract with Lawrence Halprin and Associates, landscape architects, for detailed design work and supervision of the first two phases of the project to widen Bridgeway between Princess and Richardson streets.

There were echoes of the controversy in the Bay Area Rapid Transit District last September when Halprin and Mill Valley architect Donn Emmons resigned as consultants, charging that BART engineers were sacrificing aethetic and human values.

The Sausalito contract retains Halprin at a fee not to exceed $2,000 in Phase 1 "to see that basic construction work allows for completion of final landscape and design plans."

City Mgr. George M. Patterson objected that this "reads as if Halprin will be checking up on whoever is contracted to do the job." He wondered if it were sound to "hire engineers to do the work and then hire someone else to see that the engineers work."

The council, however, approved the contract, adding a suggestion of Mayor Mel Wax that "any conflict between the engineers and the landscape designers shall be reported immediately to the city council."

In Phase 2 of the seven-phase $439,000 project, Halprin will be responsible for approximately $40,000 worth of construction and will receive a fee of $4,000.

The Sausalito City Council Also:

1. Agreed to advise the California Arts Commission that it had no objection to a touring "art mobile" visiting the city.

2. Assured petitioners in the 200 block of Bridgeway that the city public works department would make every effort to prevent storm-tossed debris in the water from harming the boardwalk there.

3. Referred to Loren L. Jay, chairman of Sausalito's "People to People" program, a request by the National League of Cities for a $100 contribution to the national "People to People" effort.

4. Instructed Public Works Director Norman Wohlschlaeger to find how much it would cost to remove a new utility pole on Nevada Street at the corporation yard and underground the lines.

5. Authorized payment of $155 to Russell S. Reagan owed on litigation in 1960 over purchase of Shelter Cove properties.

6. Postponed till Jan. 3 consideration of an offer by John Giusto of Sonoma of $100 for the pump on an old fire engine.

7. Approved "no parking" zones on Miller Lane within 10 feet of Miller Avenue and at 417 and 419 Napa Street, and a green zone at 501 Caledonia street, but postponed till Jan. 3 decision on "no parking" zones at 526, 530, 532 and 540 Easterby Street.

8. Approved application to the federal government for funding the second half of its $55,000 "701" program, for which the government provides two-thirds the cost.

9. Passed a resolution endorsing proposed state legislation which would exempt cities from taxation for services provided primarily to residents of unincorporated areas.

10. Amended Ordinance 83 to forbid anyone but authorized city personnel from opening fire hydrants, except by permission of the fire department and on posting of a $500 bond to insure against damage by water.

11. Postponed until Jan. 3 decision on a request by Delmar Wise of Diesel Engineering for a maintenance dredging permit at his property. The council asked City Atty. Leland H. Jordan to see if the city has authority to require resulting spoils be carted away rather than dumped on Wise's land.

13. Approved the urban thoroughfare agreement with the county, calling for joint financing of improving major roads through the city.

School Caroling To Be Discussed On KTIM Show

The question of whether Christmas carols should be sung in public schools will be discussed from 9 to 10 a. m. tomorrow on Radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board."

Speakers will be Alan Ellsberg, principal of San Rafael High School; Morse J. Byer, chairman of the social studies department at San Rafael High School; Lawrence A. Lindberg, director of instruction, Marin County superintendent of schools office, and Richard V. Godino, assistant county counsel. Kitty Oppenheimer will conduct the program.

Caroling by students in San Rafael High School was cancelled last week when teacher's objected.

The program will be repeated at 12:30 p. m. Sunday.

Yule Lights Taken

Blake Moulin of 13 Hickory Avenue and Charles W. Brock of 10 Hickory Avenue, Corte Madera, both reported outdoor Christmas lights stolen last night, according to Corte Madera police.

Boat Items Stolen

William A. Glikerson of Pier 3, Sausalito Yacht Harbor, reported yesterday to police that cash and navigation instruments with a total value of $1,100 were stolen Monday night from his boat, the Griffin.

Board Gives Tennis Court Pact The Nod

Fairfax School District Board authorized Supt. H. Reginald Hammond last night to draw up a contract with the city permitting construction of tennis courts near Peri Park on Park Road.

The city has sought to put courts on the school-owned property. Under the contract, the property would be returned to the district if it needs it in the future.

Hammond said the contract would be up for district consideration at its next meeting, Jan. 3.

The district learned from Crawford and Banning, San Rafael architects, that site development of the new $450,000 White Hill School has been delayed by bad weather. Construction is still expected to start early next year.

The Fairfax School District Board also:

1. Passed a resolution allowing teachers payroll deductions for tax-sheltered annuities.

2. Heard a report from Hammond on the Institute for the Educational Handicapped, which is being sponsored by the county schools' office and the Fairfax district, and is scheduled for Jan. 14 at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, Strawberry.

3. Heard a report from Patchett's Transportation on the collision of one of the school buses it operates and a car in Fairfax Nov. 23. There were no injuries.

4. Discussed further the possible use of data processing for bookkeeping work, but postponed action.

Citizens Propose County-Wide Harbor District

A county-wide harbor district to absorb the Bolinas Harbor District and give broader control in the future of the lagoon was suggested by a Mill Valley resident yesterday.

Jean Barnard, a conservationist and regular observer at county supervisors' meetings, asked supervisors if the idea were feasible.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney said that such a move would require dissolution of the present district, not possible without approval of the district's voters.

The proposal was discussed as the stand-off between the board of supervisors and directors of the district continued. Both claim jurisdiction over planning on the lagoon. The district has plans for a marina which are now in the second phase of study.

Youngsters Cited

Two Marin City boys, 11 and 13 years old, were cited for shoplifting $11.47 worth of shirts and socks from Montgomery Ward and Co. store in the Corte Madera shopping center yesterday at 1 p.m., according to Corte Madera police.

To soften the unpopular, riot-provoking draft established in the north during the American Civil War, various areas offered generous bounties for volunteers to fill their quotas.

A Visit to Charlie's Market

'Twas the week before Christmas and Mom was so busy
With shopping and mailing she was all in a tizzy.
But food was no problem, she didn't need to worry.
She knew where to go and be through in a hurry—
Charlie's was near with variety and price.
With service none-better and clerks that are nice.
She knew she could get everything on her list,
And be back in the kitchen before she was missed.
She knew the produce was the best she could buy.
The colorful displays always catching her eye.
Her day was made easy, Charlie's clerks saw to that.
So take heed all homemakers and worry no more.
Do your shopping with ease, at the big little store.

Hospital Board Fears Fair Hiring Problems

Marin Hospital District directors expressed concern last night that the county's insistence on a civil rights agreement from contractors before bidding on the Community Mental Health Center will harm that project.

Board president Marion C. Ibach said the district should have been invited to a pre-bid conference at the Civic Center Nov. 30. She noted that contractors seem to be balking at the fair hiring requirements set by Marin County supervisors.

"If this agreement is to preclude bidders, then we must take it out," she said.

"I can see this whole thing going down the drain," said director Hadden W. Roth.

The board postponed decision on a request by the county that it somehow apply $13,238 in excess taxes, taken in for the mental health center, to construction of that center.

Attorney Harold F. Riede said the district set a limit of $150,000 for that construction, but the excess could go to the attached medical library. Excess from the library fund could be diverted to the main construction fund, he suggested.

The board authorizer architect Rex Whitaker Allen to print copies of his master plan for expansion of the hospital to house 500 beds.

It voted to withdraw its application for federal funds to implement that plan, since the district is not prepared to begin construction of a new wing for the hospital.

Allen showed the board plans which could provide an ultimate 950 parking spaces on Marin General Hospital's present grounds at a cost of $814,000.

He said it would probably be cheaper to buy land across Bon Air Road from the hospital and pave it for parking. If traffic on the road becomes too heavy, the said, the district could build an overhead walkway to the hospital.

Marin Hospital District Board Also:

4. Agreed to a two-year lease with National Cash Register Co. for use of electronic business office equipment at $1,019.02 a month. The company was the only bidder.
1. Appointed Dr. James L. Goebel of Sleepy Hollow as chief of staff for the hospital.
2. Approved appointment of nine new members to the hospital staff.
3. Agreed to give office space and classroom space at night for a respiratory disease clinic for outpatients, to be maintained by the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.
5. Agreed to guarantee loans at 7 per cent by Bank of Marin to Marin General Hospital patients to put toward hospital bills.
6. Heard a report from public relations consultant Jules Becker that of 118 persons answering a district questionnaire last week, more than half said would ride a bus to the hospital if it stopped on Bon Aire Road. The district is seeking a Greyhound Bus Lines route by the hospital.
7. Adjourned in memory of A. Crawford Greene, chairman of the board of trustees of the Marin General Hospital Foundation.

Director Herbert F. Brandt, who is ill, was absent.

Hadden Roth Resigns His Hospital Post

Hadden W. Roth, Marin's new municipal court judge, resigned last night from the Marin Hospital District board, saying the state constitution forbids his holding any other office.

The board accepted his resignation with regret. Board president Marion C. Ibach congratulated Roth on his appointment, saying, "It is a tremendous tribute to a person as young as you."

Roth is 36.

The board asked that anyone interested in serving out Roth's term on the board, which expires Jan. 1, 1969, notify Ray K. Bollinger, administrator of Marin General Hospital, or Dr. Gwendolyn Campion, board secretary.

"I would hope we could appoint someone at our January or February meeting," said Mrs. Ibach.

Tahoe Teeners Killed In Crash

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE (AP)—Two teen-age daughters of Lake Tahoe developers were killed yesterday when their convertible ran out of control over a 10-foot embankment.

They were Maria Christina Watson, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Watson, and Connie Wilson, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wilson.

The car was driven by Miss Watson.

New Chamber President Is Elected

Clifford S. Lund, president of Lund Associates Inc., has been elected president of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce for 1967.

Charles Try of J.C. Penney Co. was elected first vice president, and Charles Van Horne of Crocker-Citizens National Bank was elected second vice president.

Lund will succeed K. Herzog Jr., president of S. K. Herzog Co.

Hilton J. Simon, a partner in the accounting firm of Sleezer and Eckhoff, was appointed treasurer.

Six members were elected to the board of directors for three-year terms. They are: Albert Bianchi of Bagley, Bernt, Bianchi and Sheeks, attorneys; John Graham of Graham Lumber and Hardware Co.; Troy E. Lewis, of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., Kenneth McKenzie of McKenzie Children's Bootery; Fred Saccone of United Markets, and Try.

Girl Almost Dies In Santa Costume

DENVER (UPI)—An 11-year-old girl, her bright red Santa Claus outfit aflame, ran screaming across a school stage yesterday while stunned classmates watched helplessly, or tried to duck out of her way.

Fire Chief John Horan said the girl's life was saved when a nun ordered another student to trip the panic-stricken girl and then rolled the child on the floor to smother the flames.

The victim, Susan Sheridan, an eighth grade student at Christ the King School, was reported in satisfactory condition at Children's Hospital. Doctors said she had first and second degree burns on her back and arms.

Russians Launch New Luna Probe

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union launched two unmanned space probes today—an automatic moon probe, Luna 13, and another of its satellites in the Cosmos series, No. 137.

Tass said the rocket, Luna 13, was launched at 1:17 p.m. Moscow time (2:17 a.m. PST).

Russia's last moon probe, Luna 12, was launched Oct. 22 and went into orbit around the moon Oct. 25.

Soviet space activity thus far this month has been confined to three earth satellites in the Cosmos series—Cosmos 134, 135 and 136.

Trustees Choose Single Proposal For Bond Vote

Bolinas-Stinson School District Monday night agreed to put only one measure on the March bond election ballot — $275,000 to meet district needs over the next 10 years.

Trustees had considered offering four choices:

1. Put some classes in tents.
2. Repair three classrooms declared unsafe under the state Field Act following recent inspection, financing the repair with a 20-year bond issue.
3. Make the same repairs, financed with a one-year tax increase.
4. Issue $275,000 in bonds to replace or repair the classrooms and meet school expansion needs for the next 10 years.

If voters reject the $275,000 bond issue in March, trustee Arthur E. Carpenter said, the first three will be put to vote in an election later in the spring.

Date of the election tentatively was set for Mar. 21, but is to be set formally by the board when it meets Jan. 4, one week earlier than usual. At the same meeting, trustees will formally set the amount of the bond measure at $275,000, Carpenter said.

Trustees tentatively selected seven of the 21 architects who applied for the district building program. The seven, to be further screened at the Jan. 4 meeting, are: Callister and Rosse; Marquis and Stoller; Hooper, Olmsted and Emmons; Corllett and Spackman; William M. Gillis; Bushnell, Jessup, Murphy and Van de Weghe, and Marshall and Bowler.

Yule Presents Stolen

Theft of all her family's presents from beneath the Christmas tree was reported yesterday to Sausalito police by Mrs. William Benz, 4 Marin Avenue.

Value of the gifts was unknown, she said, because they had not been opened.

Firm Selected For Designing Of Sewage Plant

Jenks and Adamson, consulting sanitary engineers of Palo Alto, will design a new $135,000 pumping station for the Novato sewage treatment plant, the Novato Sanitary District Board decided last night.

The firm will get a fee of eight per cent for designing the plant, according to Charles Joseph, district engineer-manager.

The plant is the first project in the capital improvement program outlined in a master plan adopted by the district.

The board approved plans for a main extension for the Crossroads Manor subdivision of 10 acres south of Scottsdale, owned by the Baimar Corp.

The board set 8 p.m., Dec. 29, and 6 p.m., Jan. 9, 19, and 30 for meeting times. All meetings will be held at the North Marin County Water District office at 999 Atherton Avenue.

SANTA'S ON THE PHONE FOR MARIN'S CHILDREN

His list is almost complete, but Santa Claus wants to hear from Marin County children tonight and tomorrow in the ninth annual "Call Santa" project of the Independent-Journal and the Junior Chambers of Commerce of San Rafael, Novato and Mill Valley.

The youngsters may phone Santa to give him their last-minute requests from 7 to 9 p.m. today and tomorrow at the I-J office in San Rafael., Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley, and Western Telephone Company in Novato.

"Call Santa" has become an important service for Marin County children, thousands of whom call their all-time favorite to give him new ideas about what items will be a hit on Christmas morning.

Action Youth Leader Threatens To Resign

Expressing disgust with the lack of interest his peers have in working in a youth organization, co-chairman Rick Beban of Marin Youth for Action threatened today to resign if his group accomplishes nothing in the next two weeks.

Beban, 18, was highly miffed at the goings-on at the group's meeting last night at the Marin County Schools office.

"The 'you and the law' forum was postponed for lack of interest. The family forum has postponed its speakers' bureau until February. The recreation dance had to be postponed when the College of Marin trustees said there would be no more public dances in their gym," he reported.

The Youth for Action group has a membership of about 150, Beban said, "but only about seven of us do any work.

"We started this thing very idealistically with good goals and good aims and we found out that apparently the youth of this county aren't capable of doing the work necessary for a youth organization."

Why the apathy?

"It seems to be becoming a national trait," Beban replied with no little bitterness. "I think the problem over here in Marin County is one of affluence. They've got money and they don't know how to work.

"I'm in the process of drafting a letter of resignation to the membership. We elected a new co-chairman last night, Mikel Stevens of Tamalpais High School. I hope she can do something. If nothing happens by the end of the next meeting, I will read them the letter."

Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting yesterday of Sausalito Chamber of Commerce directors was canceled for lack of a quorum, board president Robert Rogers reported.

Court Confirms Death Sentence

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California's Supreme Court affirmed the second death sentence yesterday of Daniel Allen Roberts, 41, for the murder of his landlady.

The court said in a unanimous ruling that Roberts received a fair trial last year when he was convicted by a jury which deliberated only 36 minutes.

Roberts was first convicted and sentenced to die in 1963 for the slaying of Mrs. Luther Popajay of San Francisco. But the high court at that time ruled that he was unconstituionally denied his right to counsel.

Donation Made For Indigents' Grave Markers

The first donation toward purchase of markers for the graves of county indigents was received with thanks yesterday by the county board of supervisors.

The $50 donation came from Michael D. Healy of Meadow Way, San Geronimo Valley. In his letter, Healy promised to make a contribution of $10 monthly until more substantial donations come in.

Supervisors last June, after hearing strong complaints over the lack of markers for the graves, authorized establishment of a fund to receive contributions. But none came until yesterday.

Car's Top Stolen

Theft of a $289 fiberglass top from his sports car was reported last night to Sausalito police by T. L. Dermondy, 25 Rodeo Avenue, Sausalito. Top was taken during the evening, he said, while his car was in his carport.

Tiburon Board Says Sign Must Disappear

A sign, "Dining Room Open," in a window at Tiburon Lodge, 1651 Tiburon Boulevard, is in violation of Tiburon's proposed sign ordinance and will have to come down, the Tiburon board of design review decided last night.

Decisions on a landscape plan to Tiburon Terrace Townhouse, 12 units on Lyford Drive and Redhill Circle, and on a lot split for Mrs. Germaine Webster at 2311 Mar East were both postponed.

IRS Slaps Sierra Club Contributions

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service issued a tentative ruling Tuesday that contributions to the Sierra Club will no longer be tax deductible.

The Sierra Club, a 46,000-member nationwide conservationist organization that has been objecting to federal plans for dams in the Grand Canyon, calls the action "an attempt at coercion" and promises a fight, in the courts if necessary.

The IRS action came in a 23-page letter to the club from Joseph M. Cullen, San Francisco district IRS manager.

Cullen cited "substantial legislative activity" on the part of the club and said the IRS had tentatively ruled that the club's contributors could no longer deduct the gift from their personal income taxes.

Cullen said that the club's properties and operations may continue to be tax exempt.

The charge of "substantial legislative activity" was leveled in part at advertisements which the club placed in Washington, D.C., and New York newspapers opposing the dams.

The charge also referred to the Sierra Club's campaign against destruction of California's redwood forests.

Clothing Theft Told

Who's Tearing Up Good Cash?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Secret Service is collecting bits and pieces of money from — of all places — a filter screen at a sewage plant.

Agents hope they can find out who is tearing up the $20, $50 and $100 bills which have been turning up at the Blue Plains water pollution control plant since Nov. 20. Tearing the notes is a misdemeanor.

Agents now have 160 pieces and say they are not counterfeit.

Most of the bills have been torn into eight pieces.

Brown Appoints More To Bench

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Three more judgeships were filled Tuesday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Among the appointees was John A. O'Kane, state superintendent of banks and former vice president and general counsel of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. O'Kane, 60, was named to a municipal judgeship left vacant when Brown elevated Judge Robert Drewes to the superior court.

The governor also appointed Thomas E. Feeney, 49, to the San Francisco superior court bench and Warren L. Ettinger, 37, Los Angeles, to the Pasadena Municipal court bench.

Feeney, takes over a judgeship created by the 1966 legislature. Ettinger succeeded judge Henry W. Shatford, who was elevated to the superior court.

Bakers Lawyers Due Recording

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government will hand over to Bobby Baker's attorneys this week a secret recording that evidently figures large in the government's prosecution of the former secretary to Senate Democrats.

Plans for the transaction were disclosed following a ruling by U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver Gasch that Baker's lawyers are entitled under the federal rules of criminal procedure to any such recordings or written statements in government hands.

Baker faces trial Jan. 9 on tax evasion, theft and conspiracy charges.

Skepticism Expressed Of Red Steel Buying

SINGAPORE (AP) — The U.S. government takes precautions to keep from buying Red Chinese goods, but slips can occur, American sources said today.

They were commenting on reports in business circles here that an import-export firm, headed by a mysterious Chinese woman, earlier this year sold several thousand tons of Red Chinese steel to the U.S. government for use in Vietnam.

U.S. official sources here, however, regard the reports skeptically. They say they find it hard to believe that a U.S. purchasing agent would knowingly buy Communist Chinese goods — or that Peking would knowingly sell them for use in South Vietnam.

But business circles say the two governments did not appear to know what was going on.

As they tell it:

The steel was bought in Hong Kong by the import-export firm when U.S. military forces in Vietnam were crying out for supplies in the first six months of this year.

Negotiations between the firm and the U.S. purchasing agents were conducted in Hong Kong. Singapore was simply used as a transshipment point.

The steel bars did not carry markings to show they had been made in Communist China.

Singapore government records show that $726,126 worth of steel was imported from Communist China in the first six months of the year.

The records also show that $595,300 worth of steel was reexported to South Vietnam.

A spokesman for the Communist Chinese-owned Bank of China here said he could neither deny nor confirm the reports, but that Red China placed no restrictions on the resale of commodities imported to Singapore.

"It would be quite impossible to check where all these goods go to," the spokesman added.

Photographer's Widow Files Suit

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The widow of a Northern California news photographer killed in the crash of a British jetliner at Mt. Fuji, Japan, last March has filed a $5 million suit in Sacramento Superior Court.

Seeking the money are Mrs. Wendy Hulberg, Eureka, and her 3-month-old son, Neil Kent Hulberg Jr. Hulberg, chief photographer of Eureka Newspapers, was one of 124 persons killed in the Boeing 707 crash. He was enroute to Vietnam on a special assignment.

The suit filed yesterday claimed the aircraft was carelessly manufactured and flown. The Boeing Co. and British Overseas Airways were among the defendants.

Leydecker Wraps Up Board Career

Byron W. Leydecker of San Rafael yesterday ended his three and one-half years on the Marin County Board of Supervisors with a session that did not adjourn until 6:45 p.m.

The day included a festive luncheon at San Rafael Joe's, where 50 county department heads and friends gathered and where fellow supervisors arose to praise their departing chairman in brief talks.

When the board next meets Jan. 3, John F. McInnis will be representing the First (San Rafael) District.

Leydecker opened yesterday's meeting with a talk on his term in office. He said the board has started working on black and white relationships by seeking minority employment on public construction projects. He said this was a halting step, and "probably not too adequate," but could lead to some achievement in coming years.

He said the board has beefed up the planning department and made progress toward "controlling our environment."

He counted loss of the park bond issue last June as a "personal failure."

BYRON W. LEYDECKER
Praised at last meeting

Leydecker had high praise for county employees, and said his years in office have been "the most valuable experience of my life."

Judge Favors Marin Police Consolidation

Marin Municipal Court Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. yesterday urged county supervisors to consider some sort of consolidation of police departments in the county in the interest of efficiency and standardization

Supervisors, in answer to his letter, promptly named him to chair a committee to study the matter. There was little other discussion.

The judge wrote in support of consolidation of police and sheriff's departments, discussed by supervisors prior to their turndown two weeks ago of another proposal, supported by cities, for a county services area to provide police protection in developed unincorporated areas.

The judge noted nine police departments, the sheriff's department, highway patrol, fish and game department and College of Marin police operating in the county, and said that despite this "there are some areas that are virtually without police protection."

"Regardless of good intentions, it is almost impossible for these separate agencies to effectively coordinate their efforts to combat crime," he wrote.

He said taxpayers "pay dearly for the resulting inefficiency." Also, he said, the quality of personnel varies among departments and standardization of training is needed.

Supervisors Want Easier Foster Homes Fire Laws

Foster homes in Marin, already hard to find, will become much scarcer if enforcement of strict fire regulations continues, county supervisors were told yesterday.

Director Betty L. Presley of the social services (welfare) department said, that amendments to the fire code adopted in 1963, now being enforced, put institutional requirements on the residences where welfare and probation children are kept. This calls for such things as outside fire escapes on two-story homes, no shingles or shake roofs, and fire extinguishers in the homes.

H. Edwerd Fink, the department's home licensing supervisor, estimated that about 60 per cent of the present foster homes in the county will be ruled out.

Supervisors urged fast amendment to the state rules, and asked for some leniency by the state fire marshal in the meantime.

College Proposes Mid-City Campus

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco State College has started preliminary planning for a second campus in the downtown section, President John Summerskill disclosed yesterday.

Summerskill said during testimony before the campus would accommodate some 10,000 part-time students and n undetermined number of full-time students.

The committee was considering endorsement of a new University of California campus in the downtown area.

The state college president said he was not opposing the university campus but emphasizing the future needs of his school.

County Moves To Get Rid Of Deadly Novato Curve

Marin County supervisors yesterday authorized a $70,000 bridge construction road realignment project on Novato Boulevard west of Novato, aimed at correcting a dangerous curve where three have been killed in the past two years.

The work, at Eucalyptus Avenue, will be financed by federal aid for secondary roads. The county must put up the money for right of way acquisition, estimated at $20,000 by Public Works Director Donald R. Frost.

Because of federal funding, it was necessary for the board to hold a public hearing on the job yesterday. There were some questions on details of the work, but no protests.

Frost said the curve where the boulevard bridges Novato Creek has caused 11 injury accidents in the past two years, with three being fatalities.

The realignment will still have a slight curve, but design will be for speeds of 50 to 60 miles an hour. The right of way purchase will include enough land to eventually widen the two lane route to four lanes.

Service District Will Seek Loan

Muir Beach Communtity Services District directors last night voted to apply for a $200,00 state loan to connect to Marin Municipal Water District, but found today that an election must be held first among voters in the Muir Beach district on whether to annex.

Board president Jack F. Harris said he discovered the requirement for an election in a conversation with B. G. Grant, principial engineer for the water district. Also, Grant told Harris, the Muir Beach board must have a feasibility study prepared on the cost and method of connecting to the Tamalpais Valley line.

Harris said the board will consider election procedures at its Jan. 18 meeting. The water district estimates total cost of providing water to Muir Beach at $223,541.

The cost of X-ray services has increased about 1 per cent a year for the past 20 years.

Kaiser To Seek Union Damages

FONTANA (AP)—Kaiser Steel Corp. says it will seek more than $1 million in damages from the AFL-CIO United Steel Workers of America—without going to court.

Instead, spokesmen said yesterday, the company will take grievance action as specified by the union contract.

The company will try to recover about $750,000 in losses it says it suffered during a 30-hour wildcat strike last week.

The company also seeks $250,000 in punitive damages.

Grievance procedure says if labor and management representatives fail to reach agreement, a third party makes a binding decision. Grievances have usually been made by unions.

Actress-Heiress Marries Co-Star

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Actress-heiress Dina Merrill and Actor Cliff Robertson were married today at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Majorie Meriwether Post.

Miss Merrill and Robertson have co-starred frequently in television dramas, including "The Game" for which he won an Emmy award.

The bride, heiress to the Post cereal fortune, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Augustus Riggs of Washington.

Luci Nugent Is In Big Wedding

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Luci Johnson Nugent, a bride of less than six months, performed as a bridesmaid yesterday at the wedding of her best friend.

Smiling and wearing a near-floor-length gown, Luci, was a member of the wedding party of Beth Jenkins, 19, daughter of Walter Jenkins, a former White House aid to President Johnson.

Fine For Driving

George Joseph Coen, 45, of Pacifica, was fined $289 and placed on a year's probation in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving. California Highway Patrol arrested him Dec. 10 on Highway 101.

FOR SWEET HOLIDAY feasting is a spectacular cake, the Black Forest Torte. An adaptation of the German classic, it's composed of four chocolate layers spread with chocolate-almond frosting and whipped cream. Flaked coconut fluffs the topping and a wreath of candied cherries adds a festive note as garnish.

WELCOME DISH

Classic German Torte Cake Creates Air Of Hospitality

"Welcome is the best dish in the kitchen," according to an old proverb. That's fine sentiment — but the real best dish during the holidays is a spectacular cake, served with an air of warm hospitality.

Black Forest Torte is the star of the holiday season. It's an adaptation of a German classic composed of four tender chocolate layers. The first layer is spread with chocolate-almond frosting, the second with whipped cream — and the same rousing combination all around for the other two layers.

Don't be afraid to gild the lily. Delectable flaked coconut adds its touch to the top of the torte. A wreath of candied cherries adds a festive note as garnish.

Its' one of the best cakes you've ever set tooth to. And because it's made with soft-type margarine containing liquid safflower oil, it takes less time to make than you would think. Soft-type margarine may be blended right from the refrigerator with convenient all-purpose flour and other batter ingredients. Brushes easily right on the pans, too.

Soft-type margarine saves time on the filling also, as it melts at once in the heated chocolate. Here you use sweet cooking chocolate, so wonderful for fancy baking.

The cake freezes beautifully; it's a good idea to make one on an afternoon when you have some time. Just wrap it well in transparent saran film; the torte will keep in the freezer until it's time for the holiday unveiling.

And there are other pastries to serve with equal pride. Chocolate Almond Chips are great with coffee for the grownups, with milk for the youngsters, or as a neighborly present, gift-wrapped in sparkling film. Holiday Coconut Cake features whipped cream and delicious flaked coconut with a Tutti Frutti filling.

Try one try all — they are holiday goodies sure to win you credit all through the festive season.

BLACK FOREST TORTE

Cake layers:

- 1¾ cups unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1¾ cups sugar
- 1¼ teaspoons soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon baking powder
- ⅔ cup soft-type margarine containing liquid safflower oil
- 1¼ cups water
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 4 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted and cooled
- 3 eggs

Measure flour, sugar, soda, salt, baking powder, soft-type margarine, water and vanilla into large mixer bowl. Add melted chocolate. Beat at low speed to blend, then beat 2 minutes at medium speed, scraping sides and bottom of bowl frequently. Add eggs; beat 2 minutes longer. Brush sides and bottom of four 9-inch layer cake pans with soft-type margarine (2 layers may be baked at a time while the remaining batter stands, if desired). Pour ¼ of batter (little over 1 cup) into each pan. Layer will be thin. Bake 17 to 20 minutes, until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool slightly and remove from pans. Cool completely.

FILLING, TOPPING AND GARNISH:

- 1½ packages (4 ounces each) sweet cooking chocolate
- 1 cup soft-type margarine containing liquid safflower oil
- ½ cup chopped toasted almonds
- 2 cups heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Flaked coconut
- Candied cherries and angelica

Melt sweet cooking chocolate over hot water. Cool. Blend in soft-type margarine and almonds. Whip cream with sugar and vanilla until stiff; do not overbeat. Place bottom layer on serving plate. Spread with half of chocolate mixture. Add second layer and half of whipped cream. Repeat layers, having whipped cream on top. Do not frost sides. Sprinkle coconut over top. Garnish with cherries and angelica. Cover with transparent saran film and refrigerate until ready to serve. This cake freezes well.

YIELD: 16 servings.

CHOCOLATE ALMOND CHIPS

- 1 cup soft margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- ½ teaspoon almond extract
- ½ cup roasted diced almonds
- 1 egg
- 2 cups unsifted all-purpose flour*
- 1 package (4 ounces) sweet cooking chocolate

Heat oven to 325 degrees. Grease pan 13x9x2". Combine ingredients except chocolate in large mixer bowl. Mix on low speed or by hand until dough forms. Spread in pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes or to golden brown. Melt chocolate with 3 tablespoons water over low heat. Drizzle on cookies. Cool slightly; cut warm. Makes 4½ dozen 1" squares.

* Self-rising flour may be used.

HOLIDAY COCONUT CAKE

- 4 egg whites
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- 2 cups plus 2 tablespoons unsifted all-purpose flour*
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 3½ teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ cup shortening
- 1 cup milk
- ⅔ cup flaked coconut*
- Tutti-Frutti Filling
- ¾ teaspoon almond or vanilla extract
- ¼ cup confectioners' sugar

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease and flour two 9" layer pans. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add ½ cup sugar and beat until stiff and glossy. Combine flour, 1 cup sugar, the baking powder, salt and shortening in large mixer bowl. Add milk and blend on low speed 30 seconds, then beat 2 minutes on medium speed. Carefully fold in egg whites and coconut. Pour into pans and bake 35 to 40 minutes. Cool. Fill between layers and frost top to within 1 inch of edge with filling. Beat whipping cream with extract and confectioners' sugar until light and fluffy. Spread outside with whipped cream; chill.

* When using self-rising flour, omit baking powder and salt.

* Part of a 3½ ounce can. Use remainder in Tutti-Frutti Filling.

TUTTI-FRUTTI FILLING

- 2 egg yolks
- ⅔ cup dairy sour cream
- ⅔ cup sugar
- 1 cup finely chopped pecans
- About ⅔ cup flaked cocnut
- ½ cup finely chopped raisins
- ½ cup finely chopped candied cherries

Blend egg yolks and sour cream; stir in sugar. Cook over low heat, stiring until mixture begins to simmer. Simmer several minutes, stirring until mixture thickens. Remove from heat; stir in remaining ingredients. Cool.

Time For Baking Mincemeat Pies

Good Mince Pie Ice Cream

GOOD MINCE PIE

- 2 cups prepared mincemeat
- 1 cup coarsely shredded peeled tart apple, not packed down
- Finely shredded rind of ½ medium or large orange
- Flaky pastry for 2-crust 8 inch pie

Lightly mix together the mincemeat, apple and orange rind. Line 8-inch pieplate with pastry; add mincemeat filling; top with pastry strips in lattice fashion. (Use directions in any comprehensive cookbook for rolling out and adjusting pastry for a lattice-top pie.) Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 30 minutes or until pastry is brown. (If pastry edges tend to get too brown in your oven, place a strip of foil around edge of pie when it goes in the oven, removing foil toward end of baking time.) Serve hot or reheat.

Scandinavian Toddy For Yule Toasting

GOTHENBURG — Glogg is Sweden's version of the wassail bowl. Each year, come Christmas time, Swedes, wherever they may be, brew the simmering Scandinavian toddy and lift steaming mugs in toasts to health and good-fellowship.

The piquant concoction is a flaming blend of wine, spices, almonds and raisins, liberally fortified with an ingredient of higher alcoholic content. The result is a bracing cup which is considered quite efficient in relieving the chill of icy winter weather, and whatever the climate, a drink calculated to bring a glow to the cheek and a twinkle to the eye.

THE RECIPE for glogg can vary. Just as many Americans are quite finicky about their personal formulas for the "perfect" martini, so Swedes have similar quirks in being able to mix the "foolproof" Glogg. While such experimentation can lead to a complete spectrum of tastes, generally it is agreed that the chill-killing efficacy of the drink remains undiminished.

ACTUALLY THE name "glogg" derives from the word "glodga" which means "to make glowing or red-hot." The word glod means "burning coals, embers."

In pre-automotive Sweden where trips, to and from church, or between villages, or between homes, were made by open sleigh in frigid weather, travelers were offered steaming drinks — usually hot, spiced wine — for reheating purposes. Travel methods have long since changed, but custom has not. As soon as Sweden's long, hard winters begin to set in, thoughts turn to glogg. During Christmas season when families and friends exchange visits it is traditional to serve glogg.

COLORFUL BACKGROUND or otherwise, "it's what's in the cup that counts," and with a hearty "skal," here is glogg for Christmas:

- 1 bottle Swedish Aquavit or Vodka or Gin or Brandy
- 2 bottles of Burgundy
- ¾ cup raisins
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon cardamon seeds
- ½ tablespoon whole cloves
- 3 cinnamon sticks
- 1 lemon peel slice
- almonds

Pour half the bottle of liquor and all of the Burgundy into large sauce pan or a copper kettle. Add raisins and sugar. Tie spices in cheesecloth and drop into wine mixture. Cover pan, bring very slowly to boiling point and let simmer for thirty minutes. (Don't taste!) Then add remaining part of gin or aquavit or vodka — or brandy. Remove from heat and bring in the brew to your guests. Set a match to the Glogg and serve it "ignited." Use a long handled ladle and serve in egg nog cups or punch glasses. A good way to keep the second serving hot is to use a chafing dish as a serving bowl. For "ritual effect" turn out the lights in room before igniting Glogg!

Turkey Luncheon

Cut a head of iceberg lettuce into 4 wedges. Combine ½ cup each canned whole cranberry sauce and applesauce; flavor with nutmeg. Spoon over wedges and serve with sliced turkey.

SWEDES EVERYWHERE add warmth to the holiday season with the traditional glogg cup. The simmering Scandinavian toddy is Sweden's version of the wassail bowl. As soon as Sweden's long, hard winters begin to set in, thoughts turn to glogg.

Seventeen Girls Presented At Marin's Debutante Ball

A new look was given to the decorations, done this year in turquoise with white blossoms, camellia trees flanking the stage in the ballroom and white camellias trimming the ceiling beams. White azaleas and cyclamen flanked the stage to lighten the effect from the formerly traditional green fir boughs and Christmas trees.

After the girls were presented they were escorted by their fathers to the ballroom floor and joined their escorts for the grand march and waltz. Then the fathers returned to enjoy the first dance with their daughters.

While the orchestra held sway in the ballroom a lively combo supplied the "new music" in the dancing tent at the far end of the club. Supper tables were set in the dining room, adjacent to the buffet table. And the girls' parents and the sponsors of the ball had supper in the foyer of the club.

THE 1966 DEBUTANTES who were presented last night were:

SUSAN DE BERRY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Dick De Berry of Belvedere, escorted by Steven Novacek of Mill Valley.

MARTHA DREXLER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drexler of Mill Valley, escorted by Robert Leppo of Mill Valley.

DEBORAH FOERSTER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hanger of Ross, escorted by Michael Grant Ridegar of San Anselmo.

Yellow Will Be New Spring Color

The color story for spring sizzles, the American Wool Council reports. Yellow is the major promotional color, varying from medium egg color to pale butter to a lively golden citron tone. Next in line: the blues, unadulterated and clear, having two tonal bases. First in importance are the soft blues, going into cornflower blue and ending with a bright and brilliant Bristol. Turquoise is set apart and the radiant tones run from pale to brilliant.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Desperate Would Never Lie About Her Age To Minister

DEAR HELEN:

I have a terrible problem. I joined my church when I was 31-years-old, and have been very active in it.

I was discharged from the hospital recently and today my pastor came to visit me. We somehow got on the subject of age, and when I told him I was 37 last September, he said, "Come now, don't be a Jack Benny. You told me you were 42 when you joined the church six years ago."

He just heard wrong. I would never lie about my age just because I'm a female and supposed to have that priority.

Helen, I can't bear to face anyone—all this time people have been taking me for 10 years older than I am. I feel I should leave the church, but love its activities. I'll appear in a play there soon.

I am a recent widow which makes it all the worse to be considered 47. I dress well, look young, and am young-at-heart. How can I return to church, knowing they've always thought of me as so much older?—DESPERATE AT 37.

DEAR DES:

If admittance to Heaven depended on tact, your minister wouldn't get past St. Peter! He should stick to saving souls and let others save face.

Age isn't that important, but if it is to you, then why not show your birth certificate to a few strategic talkers? I hope you haven't lost it.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

My husband has the strangest habit of staring at women. I mean really staring, like in a trance. I could understand if it was just a pretty girl passing by, but he even stares at his sister-in-laws! What's with him?—WONDERING

DEAR WON:

I don't know, but so long as it's all trance and no advance, I wouldn't worry too much.—H.

DEAR HELEN:

The letter from T. Y. K. whose husband doesn't consider it "untrue" as long as it's "uncaring," sounds like a description of my marriage. My husband would tell me he had to work—but for days and nights at a time?

I ask myself, after 28 years, was love worth it all? The answer should have been NO, the second year of our marriage.

My advice to TYK is leave him now while you are still young. Don't hang on until greener pastures are no longer green. Mine, too, told me he loved only me, and the proof was in the children, yet his girl friend and I were pregnant at the same time and he took us both to the same doctor. I did not know this then. The crossword puzzle has been put together later.

Now that my husband is finally "true"—because he is worn out and old—I am too worn out and old to care.

To all the TYK's of the world—and there are plenty—don't be the sweet little wait-at-home. If he can't play straight, straighten him out in court.—T.B.A.

DEAR HELEN:

Some of my husband's relatives are constantly slamming certain religions and ethnic groups. They delight in telling stories about these that are so contrived and prejudiced they're sickening. They even make hateful remarks to me about MY religion. I've tried to explain tactfully that we must rate people on individual basis and respect the beliefs of others. Nothing helps.

Obviously these people are to be avoided, but I can't, for the sake of my husband. How can I stop this ignorant prattle?—SICK AND TIRED

DEAR S and T:

Tactful explanations seldom work with prejudiced people. Their closed-mind open-mouth policy requires firm words from your husband. Is he man enough to make them?—H.

Newlywed Leths At Home In Tiburon

Elizabeth Dehaven Snyder became the bride of Jerry Leth of Tiburon at a four o'clock ceremony at the Oakdale Emory Methodist Church in Rockville, Md. on Nov. 26. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Snyder of Rockville was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Dorsey Hawkins of Sandy Springs, Md., was matron of honor. Michelle Moffett of Rochester, N.Y. and Christy Lee Leth of Palos Verdes were bridesmaids; Nancy Miller of Kensington, Md., was the junior bridesmaid and Judy Moffett of Rochester, N. Y., the flower girl. The attendants wore plum velvet full length gowns in princess style, with the junior attendants in pink velvet.

The bridegroom's brother, John W. Leth of Palos Verdes was his best man. Raymond Moffett of Rochester, N. Y. and Jerry Schimke of Cambridge, Mass., were the ushers.

A reception was held at the Kenwood Country Club.

Betsy is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and has been living in San Francisco where she is employed by the General American Life Insurance Co. she is the sister of Mrs. Raymond Moffett of Rochester, N. Y.

Capt. and Mrs. W. H. Leth of Burlingame are Jerry's parents. The bridegroom is a graduate of Stanford University. He is employed by Hills Bros. Coffee Co. and he belongs to the San Francisco Yacht Club, Belvedere.

Walk Off Weight

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Overweight? Take a walk.

That universal exercise will improve muscle tone, reduce nervous tension, erase fatigue and boredom, in addition to helping to shed excess pounds, says Helen Becker, University of Nebraska Extension health specialist.

Teenagers Conduct Science Research

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Eighty teen-age volunteers are collecting rain to help study a well-known but little understood phenomenon—the breezes that flow in from water to land during the day and out again at night.

The study is being conducted by two researchers from the University of Texas under a grant from the National Science Foundation. The researchers are investigating the manner and effects of the sea breeze phenomenon along a 60-mile section of the upper Texas coast at the Gulf of Mexico, from Galveston to the Sabine Pass.

A PRIZE WINNER FROM MARIN

This painting, entitled "Woolworth's — Hot Turkey San," won Mill Valley artist M. M. Horton the $50 Helen Critchett Memorial Award at the 41st annual San Francisco Women Artists exhibition at the San Francisco Museum of Art. A watercolor by Elsie Lower Pomeroy of Mill Valley won honorable mention in the competition. The exhibit runs through Jan. 15.

San Quentin Readies Plan For Parolees

Early next year, all San Quentin prisoners who are due for parole within 30 days will be working and living together outside the prison walls.

As their parole dates draw near, the convicts will be moved from their cells to the 150-man dormitory outside the walls but still on the penitentiary reservation.

This is part of a plan for a pre-release unit at San Quentin aimed at "building a bridge for these men to the community they are about to enter," said associate warden James W. L. Park.

By late January, Park said, most of the men in the prison ranch dormitory will be prisoners with parole dates. They have been gradually replacing other prisoners, stationed there because they were good risks but lacking parole dates, he said.

Park cited two reasons for moving the men outside — "it takes getting used to being outside prison walls" and "we will have them all together in one compact unit for an intensified pre-release program."

Men in the unit will spend half of each day working at some assigned task which prison officials hope will condition them physically for outside life. The other half day and evening hours will be spent in group discussions and group counseling, Park said.

Park said the prison will bring in "resource persons" from the community to instruct the men in such outside activities as credit buying, used car buying, job interviews and apartment renting.

"We want people from the community who can come in for these discussions and help the men bridge this gap," Park said.

Tool Shed Vandals

Two unidentified 10-year-old Mill Valley boys reportedly broke all windows in a tool shed behind a house owned by Thompson Chestnut at 129 Eldridge Avenue, police reported yesterday. Also, they said, the boys took several tools from the shed.

Violist, Violinist Due As Candlelight Guests

Rolf Persinger of Tiburon, principal of the viola section of the San Francisco Symphony, and violinist Linda Ashworth will be guest artists in the second candlelight concert in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, Monday at 8 p.m.

The program is being presented by the Bach-to-Mozart group, composed of Carole Bogard, soprano; Edgar Jones, baritone; Raymond Duste, oboe; Edward Haug, trumpet; Ellen Dessler, cello; Frank Houser, violin; Margaret Fabrizio, harpsichord.

Numbers to be performed are the Trio Sonata in F Major by G. P. Telemann for violin, oboe and continuo; Concerto for Trumpet by Christof Graupner for trumpet, violin, viola, oboe, cello and continuo; "Salve Regina" by G. B. Pergolesi for baritone, cello and harpsichord; and "Die Serenaden," Op. 35 by Paul Hindemith for soprano, oboe, viola and cello.

Mrs. Martin Goldschmidt, music chairman for the Homestead Valley Improvement Club which sponsors the candlelight series, said a few tickets are available.

Airline Pilots End Quantas Stoppage

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Striking pilots voted overwhelmingly today to end the month-long walkout which has tied up Qantas Airlines' worldwide network, an airline spokesman reported.

There was no immediate announcement of terms of the agreement which was reached in Sydney, Australia.

Late A. Crawford Greene Remembers Many In Will

Attorney A. Crawford Greene Sr., 81, of Ross, left $138,750 to numerous persons and institutions, his last will filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court revealed.

The cash gifts include $5,000 to the Town of Ross in "recognition of the happiness Ross Valley has brought to me and mine."

Greene, who died Dec. 13 in his home at 1 Shady Lane, left two-thirds of his estate to be divided evenly among his five children, James Coffin Greene of Pasadena, Natalie Greene Lewis, A. Crawford Greene Jr. and Anne Greene Stine of Ross, and Sheila Greene Peck of Kentfield.

According to the 32-page will, made Oct. 19, 1962, his wife, Natalie Greene, was to have received the bulk of the estate in a trust fund. With her death last February, however, the will reverted to the alternative terms.

In addition to the two-thirds share to the five children, each is to receive $15,000 from the remaining third of the estate. Seventeen grandchildren receive $1,000 each, with grandsons Stephen Crawford Lewis and A. Crawford Greene III, both of Ross, to get an extra $5,000 each.

An acquaintance, Arthur L. Brown of Colorado receives $1,000; $250 goes to each of seven other friends, $2,000 goes to Juliet C. Doyle, wife of a friend of Greene's in Berkeley, and $5,000 goes to Greene's former secretary, Nelle C. Young of Burlingame.

He left $2,000 to his friend and chauffeur, George Hallerich of Corte Madera; $5,000 to Yale University, $500 to Harvard Law School, and $2,000 to Classical High School in Providence, R.I., as a memorial fund for outstanding students in honor of Greene's mother, Annie Aylsworth Greene.

The will leaves $5,000 total to Greene's former law partners, Morris M. Doyle of Berkeley and Robert M. Brown of Hillsborough; $1,000 each to Mills College in Oakland, San Francisco Community Chest in San Francisco, Thatcher School at Ojai, Ventura County, and Katherine Branson School in Ross.

St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross receives $2,500, Lagunitas Country Club in Ross gets $1,000.

Greene, a full partner in the McCutchen law firm in San Francisco until his retirement six years ago, named his sons James Coffin Greene and A. Crawford Greene Jr. and the former partner Doyle as executors of his estate.

Hearing of their petition for admitting the will to probate is scheduled for 2 p.m. on Jan. 3 before Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court.

Santa To Ride Around Terra Linda Tomorrow

Santa Clause will be riding through Terra Linda on a fire truck from 6:30 to 8 p. m. tomorrow, Fire Chief George A. Walser announced today.

JOHN D. La NOUE
In UBAC post

Marin United Crusade Board Leader Named

John D. LaNoue, district manager for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in Marin County, will be chairman of the Marin board of trustees of United Bay Area Crusade for 1967.

LaNoue's unanimous election came from the 14-member county contingent of UBAC volunteer leaders who also re-elected Carroll Walker, San Rafael insurance man, as county trustee vice-chairman.

The board of trustees is the major governing body of the five-county united fund which just completed a $14,014,890 campaign to help finance 176 health, welfare and youth agencies.

LaNoue is a member of the San Rafael charter committee and the San Rafael Personnel Commission. Responsibilities in United Crusade have included the campaign chairman for Marin in 1965.

He is vice president of Marin Red Cross, a member of the executive board of Marin Boy Scouts Council, and a member of the board of the Marin council of Bay Area Social Planning Council.

He also is a director of Marin County Chamber of Commerce, member of the College of Marin financial advisory committee, and director of Marin Visitors Bureau and the Marin Property Owners Assn.

Electricians Settle Strike

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—West Coast electricians settled their strike against two independent shipyards yesterday and expect agreement with the remaining independents.

But the walkout continues against 13 major yards, members of the Pacific Coast Shipbuilders Assn. No new mediation talks are scheduled in that six and one-half week old dispute.

The AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers predicted that all of the more than 30 West Coast independent shipyards would accept the union's latest proposal.

The proposal was accepted by two San Francisco yards, Franklin Machine Works and the Triple A Machine Works.

Red's Sub Fleet Showing Caution

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says Soviet submarines are steering clear of U.S. coasts, the South China Sea off Vietnam and other sensitive areas.

"They don't want to be caught inadvertently in any embarrassing position," said Vice Adm. Charles B. Martell, head of the Navy antisubmarine program.

He said the Soviet program, however, includes perhaps 400 subs and involves increasing operations around the world.

He said about 45 Soviet subs are nuclear-powered and that about 120 missiles are mounted in about 40 of the more modern subs.

4-H Club Grant Will Go To Patient Yule Gifts

The Novato Aggies 4-H Club has received a $400 grant for citizenship projects from the Readers' Digest Foundation, much of which will be used to make Christmas merrier for hospital patients in Novato.

Projects for which the grant was made include: gifts to two children at Sonoma State Hospital, Christmas candy and cookies to convalescent hospitals in Novato, a decorated Christmas tree given to Novato Manor Hospital, popsicles for young patients at Novato Hospital who have just had their tonsils removed, redwood flower boxes to be presented to the city, garbage cans to be used in city streets and hospital gowns for patients at the convalescent hospitals. The club purchased 200 yards of material to make the hospital gowns.

The 70 members of the club will meet Friday evening to distribute the gifts and sing Christmas carols to the patients.

Marijuana Tried By Berkeley Children

"All the boys I talked to have the same mode of dress and long hairdos," one juvenile officer said yesterday. "All have some knowledge of its illegality but don't see anything wrong in its use."

Labor Camp For One, Fine For Second In Ruble Trial

LENINGRAD, U.S.S.R. (AP) — A Soviet court today sentenced Buel Ray Wortham Jr. to three years in a restricted labor camp and fined Craddock M. Gilmour Jr. 1,000 rubles — $1,111.11.

The two American youths were found guilty of violating Soviet currency regulations. Wortham also was convicted of stealing a statue of a bear.

Wortham was sentenced to two years on the theft charge and three years on the currency charge, the two terms to run concurrently.

As the court session ended, Wortham, 25, turned to Gilmour and shook hands with him. Wortham looked as if he might be close to tears. He was marched out by four armed guards.

Harlan G. Moen, consular officer from the U.S. Embassy in Moscow who attended the trial, said that Wortham's lawyer would appeal within the seven-day period allowed by Soviet law.

The three-year sentence on Wortham begins Oct. 1, the day the two youths were arrested as they tried to drive out of the Soviet Union to Finland after a one-week tourist visit.

The 18-inch cast-iron statue of the bear was found in their car, starting criminal proceedings which led to the three-day trial that ended today.

Wortham's sentence included confiscation of his car. He was also charged 163 rubles — $181.11 — as his share of court costs.

The sentence of Gilmour also included confiscation of souvenirs that Gilmour had bought with illegally obtained rubles. Gilmour was assessed 83.63 rubles — $92.92 — as his share of costs.

Purse, Wallet Taken

Gloria J. Culver, 1731-A Bridgeway, Sausalito, last night reported to Sausalito police the theft of a purse and wallet with credit cards. They were taken from her unlocked apartment, she said, while she was out early in the evening.

More than 41,400 oil wells were drilled in the United States in 1965.

NOW*--KTIM-FM is broadcasting beautiful Stereo Multiplex Music. Now Marin homes can enjoy the vast tonal dimensions that can whisper the full beauty of music or can shake your walls with the majestic crescendos of great orchestras.

*In 1947 Marin's own radio station KTIM came on the air. The idea was to serve Marin. Today, almost 20 years later, there are two KTIMs—one on FM—one on AM. Our AM facilities include the most modern high-fidelity Bauer transmitter of 1000 watts, located in the population center of Marin, on the Northgate Industrial Property. (We have a standby transmitter of the same power.) In 1961 our second station, KTIM-FM, came on the air with 800 watts of power. During the past twelve months the KTIM-FM transmitter has been replaced with the industry's most modern equipment and power increased. The FM transmitter is now located on the new tower on San Rafael Hill, with a carrying range far beyond the borders of Marin. This week we increased our power to 3800 watts and installed Stereo-Multiplex music reproduction. Of special interest in connection with the new tower, our transmitted FM signal is polarized both horizontally and vertically. During past two months reception on FM car radios and certain table model sets has become five times louder and clearer due to the vertical polarization technique. During this period our studios have been continually enhanced in electronic developments. Our wonderful music is played from tapes custom recorded for our two stations. It has been two years since we've played an ordinary phonograph record. We, thanks to our loyal advertisers, have been growing with Marin. Our surveys show KTIM and KTIM-FM dominates local listening in Marin County. This we do not take for granted—we consider it a responsibility and never-ending challenge to make Marin's radio facilities the finest there are. For myself and our priceless staff . . . A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Council Adopts Preliminary Plans For Sausalito Library

By ROBERT STREBEIGH

Preliminary plans for Sausalito's $250,000 library on the sand spit were enthusiastically approved last night by the city council.

It was the council's first glimpse of the drawings by architect Aaron Green, who revealed an airy structure of wood and glass in a parklike setting, designed with a low silhouette to conserve views of the bay from Bridgeway.

After seeing the sketches and unanimously praising their conception, the council set a special meeting at 8 p.m. Dec. 27 to pass a resolution calling for a $250,000 bond leection next March 14.

Meanwhile, Mayor Mel Wax advised the council, steps are being taken to clear title to the land by the Jan. 15 deadline for application for state funds for one-third the cost of land acquisition.

The library site is owned by the city, but half is under lease to Madden and Lewis until the year 2002 and has been sublet to Mac-Marin Inc. on part of whose sublease the Spinnaker Restaurant in built.

Appraisers for the city and Mac-Marin will estimate the value of the portion of the sublease required for the library, Wax said.

The library is to be near the Spinnaker on the south side of the spit and set back from the water about 20 feet, which Wax noted, would provide room for a shoreline promenade.

Seen from Bridgeway, it will present a low outline, its angled roof barely visible above surrounding shrubs and trees. Seen from the water, it will suggest a modified chalet with a large terrace for outdoor reading and relaxation.

Architect Green told the council that exterior finish was not finally decided and could be partially of stucco, but that he preferred wood which could be left to weather and blend with the landscape.

Beyond the lobby, the building will open into a large chamber, with laminated-beamed ceiling sloping gradually upward toward the view of the bay beyond—a view unobstructed by the five-foot high book shelves for a collection of some 40,000 volumes.

Special areas would be set aside for children and young adults and for special exhibits. A spacious lounge and reading area will occupy the central section and open onto the terrace overlooking the bay.

Green had not provided for a fireplace, saying Librarian Kay Berteau had told him this would require extra personnel to tend and extra space for storing wood. However, City Mgr. George W. Patterson said this would require very little of a custodian's time. The council agreed and recommended inclusion of a fireplace.

The council increased the part time librarian pay from $2 to $2.50 an hour, librarian assistant from $1.85 to $2.10, and library clerk from $1.85 to $2.00.

Old Coleman School Will Be Boarded Up

Old Coleman School on Grand Avenue, San Rafael, "is apparently no more a fire hazard than your house and mine," according to San Rafael City Atty David Menary.

Menary said he talked yesterday with Police Sgt. Louis E. Foster, who wrote a report Friday saying the building was a fire hazard, and learned the charge was prompted by discovery of papers stored in one room.

He said he has talked with Bagley, Bernt and Bianchi, the San Rafael law firm that owns the building, and the partners have agreed to board up the building.

"That should solve the problem," he said, "but I do want to check some law before reporting to the city council."

Fire Inspector Kenneth Mazza, who also inspected the building Friday, said the principal fire hazard would be eliminated if juveniles and transients could be stopped from breaking into the building.

The building, at Grand Avenue and Linden Lane, has stood vacant since 1962.

Woman Is Treated For Siamese Attack

Juanita O. Swanson, 201 Eldridge Avenue, Mill Valley, was given first aid this morning by firemen after a Siamese cat attacked her outside her home.

She told police she would have the deep cuts on her right leg treated by her doctor. The cat was turned over to the Marin County Humane Society.

MORE LAMBS DUE TO JOIN CRECHE SCENE

The score is four with seven more to go.

With the birth yesterday afternoon of another lamb at the Nativity scene at Grant Avenue and Highway 101 in Novato, the score now stands at four lambs. One was born just after they were placed in the pen, twins were born Saturday night, and another yesterday.

John W. Thorsson of 2285 Novato Boulevard, owner of the sheep in the exhibit, said seven more ewes in the pen are to lamb soon.

Suit Taken

Shoplifters took a woman's suit and three pair of women's slacks from Julida Fashion in Strawberry Town and Country Village, according to a report by Mrs. Gloria Crowe, a clerk, to sheriff's officers.

Aspiring Teen-Age Author Setback; Loses Manuscript

Charles S. Upton, 18, of San Rafael, launching a literary career, has lost the manuscript for his first novel.

"I know it exists somewhere," he said today.

Charles, son of Dr. and Mrs. William F. Upton of 50 Beach Drive, was waiting beside his telephone today, hoping that someone would answer the classified advertisement he placed in the Independent-Journal.

Young Upton hitched a short ride out of Sausalito going north Saturday afternoon. It was in a sedan, either dark blue or green, driven by a man who said he was bound for Fairfax.

Burglary Attempt Made At Sabella's

Attempted burglary of Sabella's Restaurant at 555 Redwood Highway, Alto, was reported by owner Angelo Sabella, sheriff's officers said today.

Sabella told deputies someone pried on a side door lock, but failed to gain entry. He discovered the attempt yesterday morning.

Injured In Accident

Ralph Michael Rizzolo, 23, of San Francisco was treated at Novato General Hospital for cuts and bruises on his arms after his car hit the center divider fence on Highway 101 north of the Ignacio Boulevard overpass and rolled over at 10:35 yesterday, California Highway Patrol reported. Rizzolo is a salesman for Syanon Foundation.

Council Backs Improvement Of Boulevard

The City of Sausalito responded to an appeal last night to be a good neighbor and became the first signatory to a petition for creation of an assessment district to improve Sausalito Boulevard.

The appeal was made by Sausalito attorney Hugh G. Lawrence, representing Malcolm Dewees in connection with a planned unit development on the boulevard.

The proposed assessment district would finance paving the entire dirt portion of the boulevard from the paving at the west end to the paving at the east end.

Lawrence said an earlier effort to create the district had had enough sinnatures, but failed for lack of a guarantor of preliminary engineering fees. That problem has been solved, Lawrence said.

He nited that the city had acquired a parcel on the boulevard through foreclosure and asked the city to "create an example for the remaining property owners in the district" by being the first to sign the petition.

The council voted unanimously to do so.

The council also extended for six months a use permit for Dewees planned development, with the continuing proviso that he meet street improvement conditions of the city.

Boys Booked In Shoplifting

Three Novato teen-age boys were booked at Marin Juvenile Hall yesterday for shoplifting, after one of them took some perfume and a jacket from the Emporium Department Store at the Northgate Shopping Center.

Louis V. Boscola, protection manager of the store, told San Rafael police he asked one of the boys as he left the store if he had taken the perfume, and when he tried to look through the 14 year old's pockets the boy fled.

Boscola cornered him in the store's parking area and the boy threw a bottle of perfume at him. Captured, he admitted he had also taken the jacket he was wearing.

Reed Trustees Seek Federal Library Cash

Reed School District trustees last night requested an $80,140 grant from the State Department of Education to double the district's library facilities and hire additional personnel.

Supt. H. Joseph Edgington told the trustees that, if approved, it would be the largest such grant ever made to an elementary district in California.

The trustees plan to add a librarian and a library clerk and to add some 10,665 library and audio visual items under the grant.

They also discussed adding an assistant superintendent at $15,500 a year and another principal for Bel Air or Granada School at $12,500 in the advanced planning budget, but took no action.

The board said it could forsee adding six teachers next year to handle expanding enrollment.

Superintendent Edgington was directed to continue study of the Hilarita Housing site for a school in cooperation with the City of Tiburon and the Marin County Housing Authority.

Portable buildings could be leased for office and storage facilities for $1,000 to $2,000 yearly for used buildings or $2,100 to $2,800 for new ones, Edgington told the board.

The Reed School District Board Also:

1. Accepted gifts of a saxaphone from Dr. Rolland D. Plant, a violin from Mrs. Audrey Coleman, a violin and case from Mr. and Mrs. Renny Lodewyks.

2. Approved a policy amendment permitting a teacher to take up to six days per year from sick leave for personal emergencies.

3. Appointed Leland Spencer summer session principal for 1967 at a salary of $1,100.

4. Released from her contract Ellen O'Donnel, Del Mar teacher, effective Jan. 27, providing an adequate replacement can be found.

5. Granted maternity leave of absence to Mrs. Joan Peterson, art teacher.

Pair Is Named To Find Project 17 Landscapers

A joint committee of Mill Valley city and school district officials last night named City Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon and Supt. G. R. McConnell to recommend a landscape architect to the city counsel and school board to do master site planning of the Project 17 area.

Councilmen and trustees tentatively have agreed to joint development of the 45 acres for a "middle school" and recreation facility, and to sharing the cost of the master planning. Bragdon and McConnell also are to negotiate cost and scope of the plan with the firm they recommend.

City officials have indicated that they favor Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck for the job.

Vandals Cause $500 Damage To Building

Rock-throwing vandals caused damage estimated at $500 in broken windows at an apartment building under construction by Hoytt Enterprises, Marinwood Drive, Marinwood, sheriff's deputies reported today.

County Employee Struck By Auto

A Marin County Public Works employee suffered minor abrasions Monday when a car knocked him down at San Pedro Road and Meadow Drive in Santa Venetia.

California Highway Patrol said Robert Rickie Ziegler Jr., 23, of 258 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, was painting a crosswalk at the intersection at 3:30 p.m. when a car zig-zagged across the cones placed in the road and knocked him down as he attempted to flag it. The car did not stop, he said.

The patrol reported the car was driven by Paul Kenneth McSweeney, 19, of 504 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia.

Board Bows To Experts On Justice Hall Safety

The changes resulted from recommendations by the international conference of building officials, which County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost described as "ultra-conservative."

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen had the most reservations about the additional work, saying he thought it might be based on "nebulous reasons."

Frost asked the study by the conference several months ago after, he said, some local engineers questioned the safety of the building. He would not name the engineers.

The changes call for additional strengthening at stairwells and increasing continuity of frames at upper levels of the three-story structure.

Aaron Green, architect of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation, agreed the changes should be made.

Kettenhofen said the Marin Hospital District spent $200,000 to insert a separate wall in the hospital as an earthquake precaution. This money could have been spent on increasing bed capacity. He said the University of California Hospital, a larger and taller building, had no such wall. He wondered if it all was necessary.

There was a good deal of talk by board members about past earthquakes. Supervisor William A. Gnoss recalled that in 1906 his chimney crashed on the roof and the house shook. "I had to run for my life," he said. "Maybe I'm still scared."

In the end, all board members voted for the changes, but Kettenhofen said he would continue to challenge professionals because he believed it had to be done.

"Amen to that," County Administrator Alan Bruce said.

Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Denied 4-1, Kettenhofen dissenting, request of the William Kent Estate Co. for formation of a special assessment district to finance water lines already installed. Recently adopted county policy calls for district formation prior to the work to assure competitive bidding.

2. Set public hearing for 3 p.m. Jan. 17, on formation of the Tamalpais Community Services District.

3. Hired Susie N. Gibbs as half-time senior typist clerk at $209.50 in the department of economic development; Gwendolyn R. Lee as intermediate typist clerk at $362 in the treasured-tax collector's office; Ellis G. Youtz as junior auditor appraiser at $590 in the assessor's office; Doland A. Juarez as deputy probation officer at $650; Ilys K. Hernandez as principal clerk at $463 for the human rights commission, and Maurice Barrow as general apprentice at $345 in the welfare department.

4. Delayed until Jan. 3 consideration of Coroner-elect Donovan O. Cooke's request for addition of a deputy in the coroner's office. Chairman Byron W. Leydecker noted that the same request had been made by Coroner Frank J. Keaton at June budget time, but put off until January.

5. Continued discussion of purchase of Paganini Point for a county park until Park and Recreation Director Pierre W. Joske has information on appraisals. Owner Charles E. Paganini is planning a new home on the land and told the board the price will be considerable more than the $60,000 the park department had estimated.

6. Recommended a change in retirement board by-laws to allow part-time employees to receive retirement eligibility after 10 years of service, the same as full-time employees.

7. Learned that the Civic Center had been nominated for an award in the governor's "design award" contest under the public building category, with presentations due at a banquet Dec. 28 in Pasadena.

8. Confirmed appointment of Anthony Marcelli to fill the term of James C. Upshaw, resigned, on the Terra Linda Recreation and Park District, and the appointment of Fred E. Davis to fill the term of James Dougan, resigned, on the Bolinas Fire Protection District Board.

9. Awarded sale of $300,000 in Dixie School District bonds to First Western Bank at 4.4519 per cent interest, the lowest of five bids received.

10. Learned that no one had bid on installation of a new fire alarm system in juvenile hall and that the job would be readvertised.

11. Heard no protest on proposed dissolution of seven inactive districts and ordered they be dissolved. They are the Alto, Bayview Terrace and Gallinas Villiage Sewer Maintenance districts, Fairfax Police Protection District, North Marin County Fire District, Novato Water District, and Terra Linda No. 1 Lighting District.

12. Adopted an amendment to Gallinas Flood Control District regulations strengthening the prohibition against construction on district easements.

13. Dropped the proposal to increase the pay for three members of the county retirement board from $25 to $50. The proposal was made to compensate board member John Bacigalupi for extra accounting work done, but supervisors feared it would set precedent for other boards and commissions.

14. Adjourned until Jan. 3, skipping a meeting next Tuesday because of the holidays.

Vietnam Court Sentences U.S. Money Buyers

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — A Vietnamese special court convicted two American civilians today of currency violations and sentenced them to five years in prison.

The Americans were also fined $36,850 — the amount of U.S. military payment scrip they allegedly possessed when they were arrested in early October. There is no appeal from the court's ruling.

The men are Paul L. Bennett, 37, of Kong, N.C., formerly employed by RMK-BRJ, the big American construction combine in South Vietnam, and Meril V. Brown, 28, of Massillon, Ohio, who had worked for Sealand Transportation Co., another U.S. firm operating in Vietnam.

Bennett was fined $25,850 and Brown $11,000.

Canyon Indians Get Early Yule

Three tons of gifts were parachuted into the gorge yesterday from a C-47 transport plane flown by a volunteer pilot.

In each box were clothing, housewares, tools, toys and food.

"Project Havacare," as it's called, was started 22 years ago by Mrs. Sophie Burden of Wickenburg, Ariz. The gifts were collected in the Wickenburg and Phoenix areas.

Viet Mail Overflows Into The Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The war in Vietnam has forced the Post Office Department to use the Cow Palace to handle overseas air parcel post and air customs mail.

About 400 postal workers at the livestock exhibition hall are sorting inbound packages and shipping packages to military posts in the Pacific and Far East.

AIRMAN OF THE MONTH—A/2C Peter A. Romanelli of the 78th Communications and Electronics Maintenance Squadron, has been named Airman of the Month at Hamilton Air Force Base for his work as an automatic flight control systems specialist. Single, Airman Romanelli lives on the base.

Extension For Novato's Birthday

Plans to extend the observance of Novato's seventh birthday into a three-day affair have been formulated by the anniversary committee.

The anniversary will be Jan. 20, the date that incorporation was granted to Novato. On that date the Community House will be opened for inspection of its new redecorating job. Historical displays and artifacts which have been dug recently from the area will be placed around the auditorium.

A concert and a free public dance in the Community House are planned that night.

On Jan. 21, a program including speeches by civic leaders and awards for contests in creating a birthday card and writing an essay will be given.

On Jan. 22, the anniversary will be acknowledged by various ministers from their pulpits.

School Election Ban Is On Agenda

A proposed resolution urging the state legislature to immediately suspend the election requirement until a way can be found to reestablish local control in forming unified school districts will be considered tonight by the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

The committee, meeting at 8 p.m. in the county schools office, 201 Tamal Vista Boulevard, Corte Madera, will also discuss a letter from the Sausalito School District regarding unification of Tamalpais High School District.

NEW WORLD CHAMP?

Zoo's Baboon Leaps Escape-Proof Moat

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Everybody knows a baboon can't jump a 12-foot moat, mused the new Los Angeles Zoo's assistant director as a half-grown male baboon frolicked at large, keeping an eye on his girl ape friends inside.

"We were informed when we placed the animals there that they could not jump more than 10 feet," said assistant director Dr. Nathan Gale.

"Regrettably, it appears the baboons were unfamiliar with this data."

The male, with two females, leaped the moat last week to escape from an island compound in the new $10 - million zoo. The females were soon caught. The male, still at large, isn't rated dangerous.

"It appears we may own the world's greatest baboon broad jumper," commented Dr. Gale.

Zookeepers see the baboon frequently but can't catch him. Traps have been set, and a veterinarian stalks him armed with a tranquilizer-dart-loaded pistol.

"He's sticking around to check on his lady friends," said Dr. Gale. "There's no incentive for him to leave these parts. His only incentives are for food and ...sex, both of which he knows are here. It would be hard to think of a third incentive, for a baboon, better than the first two...

"He'll make a mistake soon, then we'll have him back again."

Californian Thinks House Leaders Won't Aid Powell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin says he has received indications House leaders won't try to stop his promised attempt to block seating of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell in the 90th Congress.

The California Democrat, talking with newsmen in Washington after a visit to New York to check on Powell's conviction for contempt of court, did not give the source of the "indications" he cited.

Many members feel Powell's chances of retaining his seat may lie with Speaker John McCormack and Democratic Leader Carl Albert. McCormack and Albert have remained silent publicly on the issue.

Powell, a Harlem Democrat, faces jail sentences totaling more than a year in New York stemming from his failure to pay a long-standing $164,000 libel judgment against him. His legal troubles prompted Van Deerlin's pledge to challenge Powell's right to take his seat when the new Congress convenes Jan. 10.

Van Deerlin's comments yesterday came as a House Administration subcommittee neared the windup of a three-day probe of the payroll and travel expenses of the Education and Labor Committee, which Powell heads. The inquiry ends today.

Wartime Ruling Gives Supervisors Pay Hike

OAKLAND (AP) — The Alameda County Board of Supervisors has voted $39,616 in back pay to its members and other top county officials on grounds that the nation is at war.

The award was made following supporting opinions by the state attorney general's office and the Solano County Superior Court that the Vietnam war existed on Sept. 17, 1965.

Board Defers On Appointment

Almonte Sanitary District directors Monday night agreed to defer appointment of a replacement for Hugh M. Brown to Jan. 23. No application for the position has been received, board chairman Robert A. Alexander reported.

Brown resigned last month because he moved out of the district.

Directors Richard J. Dawe and David J. Beasley were named to represent the district next month in talks with the City of Mill Valley on proposed changes in billing districts using the city sewage treatment plant.

Commission To Seek Airport Bids In March

Marin County Aviation Commission said last night it hoped to solicit bids in March for nearly $500,000 in improvements to the county airport in Novato.

Construction could then be finished in October, the commission estimated.

The plans followed announcement last week by the Federal Aviation Agency that it was allocating $242,729, or 54 per cent, toward project costs. The county will pay 46 per cent.

County Asst. Public Works Director Arthur T. Knutson said the FAA must approve plans and specifications for the improvements before bids can be asked.

The federal grant will go toward land acquisition; taxiway, runway, and apron construction, and for earth fill on an area for future expansion.

In a related development, the commission adopted an airport operation ordinance, and passed it onto the Board of Supervisors for approval.

The commission, meeting in Marin's Civic Center, also endorsed a proposal for an air strip near the Civic Center north development. The county planning commission has approved the idea, but a planning spokesman said last night that the FAA was "cold" to the idea because of homes that will be in the development.

The commission was encouraged when informed that business at the SFO Helicopter Service, which operates out of Sausalito, was up 50 per cent over last year. The company pays the county, which owns the helicopter site and buildings, 25 cents a passenger.

New textiles are being created by treating cotton fabrics with chemicals and then with atomic radiation.

Water Board Defer Reply To Questions

North Marin County Water District directors last night deferred answering a set of questions about the proposed West Marin annexation submitted by John E. Barrows for the Local Agency Formation Commission.

This was done to give the Marin Municipal Water District Board, which met this afternoon, a chance to answer them first, said Jerome B. Gilbert, North Marin district manager.

West Marin residents petitioned for annexation to the North Marin district after long delays on an earlier proposal for MMWD annexation.

Arnold Heise and William Jonas were named as a committee to study the reply to Barrow's questions. They will meet tonight to frame answers. A special board meeting was set for Dec. 27 to act on the request.

The board hired Brown and Caldwell, consulting engineers of San Francisco, to review the district's engineering work in developing a sewage disposal plan for the area on the east side of Tomales Bay which it annexed a few months ago.

The North Marin County Water District Board also: Authorized purchase of two sedans for $1,598 and $2,442, and two pickup trucks at $1,736 each, totaling $7,522 from the state purchasing department.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

10:09 a.m., San Rafael—Short circuit in car of Cheryl Tozer of 10 Sonoma Street, San Rafael, parked in lot at Fifth Avenue and A Street; minor damage.

11 a.m., Belvedere — Siren sounded but no emergency call. False alarm caused accidentally by telephone crew working in area.

2:30 p.m., San Rafael—Hot tube in hi fi set burned handle of screwdriver forgotten in set at Harry A. Barbier home, 122 Chula Vista Drive; damage to tube and tool only.

4:44 p.m., Tamalpais Valley—Motor burned in washing machine at home of Mrs. W. K. Knight, 54 Loring Avenue; damage limited to motor.

Prankster's Victim Gets Her Revenge

AVRANCHES, France (UPI)—Francoise Joliet didn't complain formally when her mail was stolen, placed no charges when her telephone was cut, or when her windows were broken by thrown rocks. But when a coffin was delivered to her door she put police on the trail and they found Alain Auvray, a minor official at the town hall of nearby Mont St. Michel.

Confessing he was the culprit, he said he "didn't like" Miss Joliet. He was given three months in jail to repent his methods of showing it.

Christmas Lights, Sun In The West

CIVIC CENTER AGLOW — In Helena, Mont., the city's unusual civic center appears almost to be part of a special Christmas display with all of its holiday lights. However, it is a busy center of city business.

WARM WEATHER TREE—Only in Southern California — this time Palm Springs — the Christmas tree takes the spotlight in a hotel swimming pool.

SANTA'S HELPER — This shapely Santa Claus, Noelle Nelson, collects for a Las Vegas charity on the snowless city's streets. (UPI Telephotos)

ONLY IN SAN FRANCISCO—A cablecar commuter, obscured by a Christmas tree, clutches one hand to the tree and another to the rail as he rides home through the hilly city.

120—New Cars for Sale

NEW
$100
Under Invoice

Here are two brand new '63 Buick Wildcat 2-Dr. hardtops that we have left over that must be sold this month. Both are absolutely brand new and have never been driven or licensed. They are not Executive cars or demonstrators.

This week we will sell both at $100 below our General Motors factory invoice—and we will show the invoice to prove that the cost is really cost and not hokus-pokus like some dealers use when they talk of cost.

Both carry the full 2-year or 24,000 mile G. M. warranty.

Deluxe Wildcat
Champagne Mist 2-dr. hardtop with matching saddle vinyl interior. Fully equipped with power steering, power brakes automatic, radio, heater, white walls and all the other Wildcat luxury extras. Window sticker price—$4213. Our factory invoice — $3267. Our Sale Price $3167. You Save—$1046.

Custom Wildcat

EXECUTIVE CARS

Electra 225

Skylark G.S.
Convertible in fire engine red with the big 325 H.P. performance engine. Fully equipped with bucket seats, power windows, power steering and all the Gran Sport extras. Just over 5,000 miles on this little convert that was driven all year by Mrs. Collins. Window Price—$3995. Our selling price $3095. You save $900.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Lower Colon, Rectal Polyps Thought Potential Dangers

VAN DELLEN

Polyps of the rectum and lower colon are potentially dangerous because they may become cancerous and cause obstruction. They are suspected when there is bleeding or whenever the bowel habits change, such as constipation or diarrhea in a person who was regular. The same can be said when abdominal cramps develop, more so when the distress fails to respond to the usual medications.

BUT THESE RULES hold for only one-half of those harboring pollyps. The remainder never have symptoms and the growths are discoveder accidentally through routine examinations. Polyps are easy to see through a special tube (simoidoscope) that is inserted into the rectum.

This examination is becoming a routine procedure because physicans can expect to find polyps in 5 to 7 per cent of otherwise healthy individuals.

The sigmoidoscope will not reveal polyps that are located beyond the reach of the instrument.

LESIONS HIGH in the bowel are best detected via X-ray. Thess films also demonstrate cancers and diverticula and are advisable whenever a rectal disturbance exists.

What do polyps look like? They vary in size and shape but the majority resemble miniature punching bags. Others look like small warty growths and still others grow from the wall of the intestine as soft, velvety projections. Some individuals only have one lesion whereas others have myraids of small polyps up and down the entire rectum and colon. The latter usually are hereditary and a high percentage are malignent.

POLYPS SHOULD be removed whenever they are discovered. There is better than an 85 per cent chance that the lesion is not malignant but why take the risk?

Lesions within reach of the sigmoidoscope can be removed through the instrument. When the polyp is higher an ab

Grand Jury Indicts Trio On Burglary

Three men — arrested the day of the Dec. 5 burglary of the Frederic A. Hough home in Sausalito — have been indicted by the San Francisco Grand Jury for burglary and receiving stolen property.

The trio were also charged with burglarizing on the same day the San Francisco home of attorney Tevis Jacobs in St. Francis Woods.

The accused are Richard A. Aldrich, 33, and Richard A. Gordon, 28, both of Southern California, and James H. Wilson, 25, of San Francisco.

An additional $20,300 in loot was recovered when San Francisco police, acting on a tip, raided Wilson's Broadway hotel room. Another $1,000 worth of property taken in a Sacramento burglary was found by police in an auto parked near the hotel.

Hedy Lamarr In Another Lawsuit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Hedy Lamarr has filed a $25,000 damage suit in superior court against a cosmetic firm she says fired her earlier this year.

Miss Lamarr said that she was hired last Jan. 26 as a beauty consultant by Eileen Feather Enterprises but that a $10,000 check given her was not honored because of a stop-payment order.

Congressman Hoping To Ban War Toy Sales

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Assemblyman John Burton, D-San Francisco, will introduce a bill to outlaw the sale of war toys.

Burton said psychiatrists feel such toys tend to create an acceptance of violence among children. He added the bill would probably fail but should have an educational value.

Pilot's Lucky Airplane Crash

NORTH HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This, police report, is how a pilot crashed a 29-year-old Fairchild plane and walked away unhurt:

When the engine quit yesterday 5,000 feet above the eight lanes of the Ventura Freeway teeming with commuter traffic, pilot J. L. Hargrave, 40, San Jose, steered for a vacant lot.

In getting there, the plane cut a power line—blacking out eight residential blocks—and a wingtip grazed a car on the freeway.

Though the plane landed 50 feet from the freeway, debris it had scattered caused stopped eastbound freeway traffic for half an hour.

Daughter Says Truman Is 'Shy'

NEW YORK (AP)—The popular image of former President Harry S. Truman as a man with "a fiery temper and a peppery tongue" is wrong, says his daughter.

"I rarely remember his giving way to anger," says Mrs. Clifton Daniel in a McCall's Magazine article released yesterday.

She described her father as "a shy man" with "a genuine appreciation for women and regard for their capabilities."

Newborn whales might weigh as much as eight tons and be as long as 25 feet.

AT SCHOOL — Marine Pvt. Fred A. Perdue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Perdue of 590 Thornwood Terrace, San Rafael, is attending the Aviation Electricians School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Jacksonville, Fla.

CHRISTMAS LEAVE — Cadet William Sullivan Jr., son of Col. and Mrs. William J. Sullivan, 125 Mount Whitney Court, Lucas Valley, is home on vacation from the Marine Military Academy, Harlington, Tex., where he played varsity football and made the honor list.

AT HOME — Johnathan Ely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ely, 239 Bayview Street, San Rafael, is home on vacation from Monte Vista Christian High School, Watsonville, where he is a freshman on the honor roll.

Fossil evidence indicates that the Great Plains, virtually treeless for hundreds of miles, once were a grassy woodland, with oak and pine trees on the uplands and a forest of deciduous trees along the streams.

Shrine Gridders To Visit Youngsters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The East and West squads, which include eight All America college grid stars, were to arrive today in San Francisco for the 42nd annual Shrine game Dec. 31.

The players will visit the crippled children tomorrow in the San Francisco Shrine Hospital for whom the game is played, go from there to a lunch and then get to work.

West head coach John Ralston of Stanford will use his school's practice fields. Each squad has 26 players, up two from last year because of the return of two-platoon football.

"If we could have combined my team and Notre Dame, we could have given you a real show," said Daugherty.

He did the best he could, getting the maxium allowable three players from each unbeaten squad. Daugherty took linebacker George Webster, halfback Clinton Jones and barefooted kicker Dick Kenney from his team and linebacker Jim Lynch, halfback Nick Eddy and defensive end Alan Page from Notre Dame.

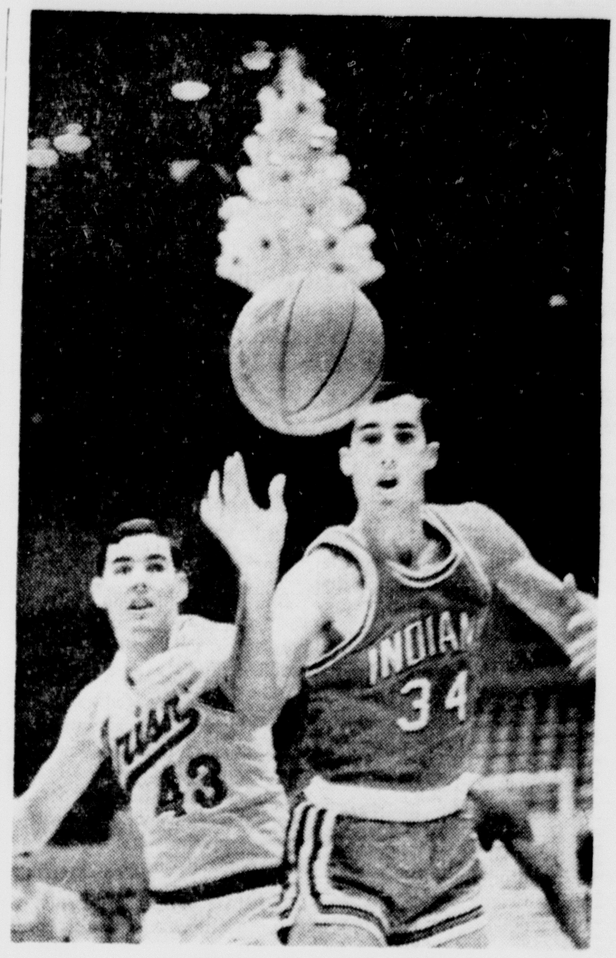
Webster will handle the East running attack, Murray Warmath of Minnesota the defense and Paul Dietzel of South Carolina the passing game.

Ralston plans to coach the West offensive backs with J. T. King of Texas Tech handling both lines and Ben Martin of Air Force the defensive perimeter.

The West will start two-a-day workouts tomorrow cut down to one Christmas and resume two-a-days until the middle of next week. The East will practice once a day.

Quarterbacks for the East are Danny Talbott of North Carolina and Benny Russell of Louisville. For the West, Don Horn of San Diego State and Tim Vangalder of Iowa State will call signals.

Besides the four already mentioned, the East has All America offensive end Jack Clancy of Michigan. All Americas on the West are halfback Mel Farr of UCLA and defensive ends, Lloyd Phillips of Arkansas and Tom Greenlee of Washington.



CAGEY CHRISTMAS

The season is even enhancing the basketball. Indiana's Butch Joyner (34) and Notre Dame's Jim Monahan (43) seem mystified by the Christmasy basketball framed by an overhanging Christmas tree at Fort Wayne Coliseum. Indiana won the game, 94-91. (UPI Telephoto)

Tars Win In Final Moments, 61-60

College of Marin star guard Bill Pandiani poured 21 points through the mesh as the sluggish Tar basketballers squeezed past Solano College last night at Vallejo, 61-60.

Pandiani's final point, which came with one second of play remaining, was the one that settled the issue.

But according to Tar coach Cal Riemcke, the Mariners did not go forth with one of their better showings during the wining effort which increased their non-conference record to 4-6.

"We've played well and lost . . . and we've played lousy and won. Now all we want is to play good and win," Riemcke quipped.

The see-saw pattern of the game is evidence of what the head mentor was talking about as the Marin cagers surged to a 32-22 lead at the half, then allowed the Solano quint to tangle it up at 32-all early in the second stanza.

With welcomed help from the likes of forwards Terry Overlid and Ken Blasingame and guard Russ Smith, Pandiani and the Tars stretched to an eight-point bulge midway through the last half, but collapsed again only to see that lead dwindle and then diminish to a three-point deficit with but 2:20 remaining in the game.

But big Brad Luz, the 6-9 center who, along with 6-5 Kraig Kilby, missed the Tars' last two games, canned a two-pointer to cut Solano's edge to 57-58.

Then, maybe as a prelude to Christmas, Providence smiled on the Mariners, as Solano's Bob Tilley took a poke at Marin's Bob Phillips. The infraction resulted in Tilley's ejection from the game—and a two-shot bonus for the Tars from the charity line. Overlid pumped in one of the two chances, and his ensuing fielder knotted it up at 60-all as Solano tallied on a pair of free throws in the interim.

Now, just 25 seconds remaining, Riemcke huddled with his cagers on the sidelines and gave the nod to Pandiani for the last-shot try. Pandiani was fouled.

And Pandiani, the Mr. Consistent of the Tar team, who fought for 15 points in Marin's 70-57 loss to high-rated Contra Costa last Friday, strode to the free-throw line and calmly caged the winning point.

The Tars, who are presently rated 14th in pre-season California junior college rankings, will host Reedley College Friday at 8 p.m.

The College of Marin Jayvees steamed past the Sonoma State Jayvees 78-62, as Russ Williams led five Tars in double figures with 18 points. Keith Kornelis had 13 points, Brian Grove and Dan O'Brien had 11 points each and Bill Gillingham chipped in with 10.

College of Marin—Terry Overlid, 2-5-9; Tom Stetson, 1-2-4; Ken Blasingame, 4-0-08; Russ Smith, 4-0-8; Bill Pandiani, 8-5-21; Bob Phillips, 1-5-7; Brad Luz, 1-2-4. Totals: 21-19—61.

Solano College—Bob Tilley, 5-2-12; John Marshall, 5-3-13; Floyd Holmes, 5-4-14; Sid Norman, 3-2-8; Manuel Maciel, 2-0-4; Charles Taylor, 0-2-2; Dan Woodson, 0-1-1; Ken Roberts, 1-0-2; Terry Bescears, 2-0-4. Totals: 23-14—60.

Marin Rotary Day At Ballpark; Cal Band Needs Dough-Re-Mi

WALTER "THE GREAT" MAILS, the publicist for the S.F. Giants, was in San Rafael yesterday huddling with representatives of the six Marin County Rotary clubs on arrangements for a "Marin Rotary Day" at Candlestick Park next June 17.

WALTER MAILS

Chairman for the Rotarians is Terra Lindan Bernie Kerns, whose father, Barney, was quite a ball player in his day and a good friend of the very same Walter Mails.

HOLIDAY MOOD — If you're of mind and heart to help send some needy musicians to Hawaii for the holidays and at the same time assist the University of California basketball team, fellow countrymen, lend me your eyes. No, no, Bunkie, just the eyes please.

Cal's basketballers, as you know, are going to the Rainbow Classic Invitational Tournament in Honolulu next week, but unless some dough-re-mi is raised fast, the famous Cal Straw Hat Band won't be able to tag along.

Formed in the early 1950's, the Straw Hat Band has become famous over the years by lending musical support at all Cal cage games—home and away. Often times the bandsmen have travelled at their own expense, in their own cars to arrive after a trip of hundreds of miles just to turn around and head for home after the game. Needless to say it is impossible to drive to Hawaii, so there's a fund drive afoot. Any old blues who'd like to help may send donations to The Straw Hat Band, 57 Student Center, University of California, Berkeley.

Marin County has five men on this interesting band. Jerry Taylor of Sausalito plays the glockenspiel, Fred Yates of Mill Valley the alto horn (or is it Fred Yates of Alto on the Mill Valley horn?), Steve Edde of Terra Linda on the bass drum, Mike Peet of San Anselmo on the saxaphone and Scott Gillespie of Terra Linda on the trumpet.

Another interesting note: Cal Director of Athletics Pete Newell estimates the presence of this band is worth 11 points to Cal's team in road games.

ANY MARIN basketball teams interested in scheduling a game with the Oakland Raiders can do so by contacting Raider publicist Bruce Bishop at his Oakland office.

Basketball? That's right. Stars of the American Football League team living in the Bay Area have organized a hoop team for tours throughout Northern California after Christmas.

Without missing a play in four days of action Bill kept official score for every game while Mike did the public address announcing.

COLLEGE OF MARIN gridders Al Simontacchi and Honor Jackson ranked high on the list of final 1966 California junior college individual leaders.

Al, the nifty quarterback, stood 10th in total offense with 1,357 yards and ninth in passing (1,326).

MUSHY MESCHERY — It's got all the appearance of a very affectionate scene but there's no love lost here as San Francisco Warrior Tom Meschery (14) tries to block off Los Angeles Laker Gail Goodrich (11) as they move downcourt during their NBA struggle at the San Francisco Civic Center last night. Barryless Warriors Whip Lakers By 23

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Although Rick Barry, the National Basketball Association's best shot was sidelined with an injury, San Francisco's Warriors handily beat the Los Angeles Lakers yesterday, 130-107.

San Francisco's latest victory put the Warriors 7½ games in front of second place St. Louis in the Western Division. Tomorrow San Francisco hosts the Philadelphia 76ers.

In place of Barry, Nate Thurmond and ex-St. Louis Hawk Jeff Mullins stole the show, Thurmond scoring a game high 23 and Mullins 20.

Mullins hit 10 key points six minutes into the second quarter to give San Francisco a 44-35 lead that was widened to 64-43 at halftime.

It was San Francisco all the way in the second half.

The 6-foot-8 Barry was knocked out of action for a week to 10 days when he suffered a strained ligament in his right ankle Monday in practice.

Dr. James Raggio, team physician, said Barry is sure to miss tomorrow's game with Philadelphia and may miss play at Cincinnati Sunday, against St. Louis at Memphis next Monday, at Baltimore next Wednesday and against Cincinnati at Cleveland Friday, Dec. 30.

Barry, who has 1,200 points for 31 games, tried to block a shot in Monday's drill and landed wrong. X-rays showed there was no break.

Detroit, the best friend Philadelphia ever had, fell down by losing to Boston 116-113 in overtime.

It marked the second straight loss to the Celtics for the Pistons, who had upset the world champions the first three times they faced them. Boston has lost only seven times, still enough to keep them five games back of Philadelphia in the Eastern Division.

The Celtics had to huff and puff to get the job done as they overcame a 95-83 deficit with 9:15 left. Larry Siegfried's free throw with 42 seconds remaining tied the game at 108 in regulation time and Sam Jones hit a three-point play with 1:29 to go in the overtime for a 115-113 lead.

In other NBA news, the league awarded a franchise to Seattle for the 1967-68 season, the start of an eight-team expansion program within four years.

A second expansion team is to be selected from among San Diego, Pittsburgh or Cleveland for the 1967-68 season, but a New Orleans group formed the New Orleans Pro Basketball Associates yesterday for the purpose of securing an NBA franchise at the earliest date. Sean Morton Downey Jr., son of singer Morton Downey, heads the group.

Don Meredith Okay After Giving The Fans A Scare

DALLAS (AP) — Quarterback Don Meredith of the Dallas Cowboys was ready to join the team for a workout this afternoon after giving the fans a big scare because of a stomach ache.

Meredith went to the hospital yesterday morning suffering a "tremendous cramp."

Meredith said he'll be ready to play Jan. 1 when Dallas meets Green Bay for the National Football League championship in the Cotton Bowl.

The Cowboys' star met newsmen at the hospital barefooted and in a bath robe. He told them he felt fine.

Meredith eidn't play in the final regular season game against the Giants Sunday at New York because of headaches occurring after he was tackled hard in the Washington game the week before.

The Cowboy's physician, Dr. Ronald Garvey, said he found no connection between the head injury and the stomach ailment.

"I do not feel there is anything serious," Garvey said.

11 Straight Strikes And Then: Well, 290

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — Jack Norgard of Seattle rolled 11 straight strikes at Ballinger Bowl Monday night and then set himself for the strike that would give him a perfect 300 game.

He threw that one in the gutter.

Sayers Wins NFL Rushing Crown; Starr Top QB

NEW YORK (AP) — Chicago's flashy Gale Sayers has succeeded the retired Jim Brown as the rushing champion of the National Football League with a total of 1,231 yards.

Sayers zoomed past both Leroy Kelly of Cleveland and Dick Bass of Los Angeles with 198 yards in the final game Sunday against Minnesota.

Sayers became the only double statistical winner in the NFL when he also took the crown for kickoff returns with an average of 31.2 yards on 23 returns.

The successor to Brown carried the ball 229 times for 1,231 yards and a 5.4 average, returned 23 kickoffs for 718 yards. However, Sayers scored only 12 touchdowns as compared to 22 in his rookie year, a record. He was the first halfback to win the rushing crown since Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia in 1949.

St. Louis had two individual leaders—rookie John Roland with an 11.1-yard average on punt returns and safety Larry Wilson with 10 interceptions. The top punter was Baltimore's Dave Lee with an average of 45.6 yards.

A Mammoth Traffic Jam In Dallas

Extra police already had been assigned during the night when an estimated 6,000 fans showed up to get in line. Some started camping at the ticket windows in mid-afternoon yesterday waiting for them to open today.

Randy Matson Enters Meet

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Randy Matson, holder of the world shotput record, will compete in the All-American indoor track and field meet Jan. 7 at San Francisco, it was announced yesterday.

Directors of the meet said that Matson would probably surpass the world indoor record of 64 feet 11 3-4 inches. Matson's world mark is 70 feet 7 inches. Also entered in the meet are half-miler Tom Farrell, decathlon champion Bill Toomey and high jumpers Otis Burrell and John Rambo.

New Shrine Football Director Follows Coffman's Footsteps

HANLEY

Nobody, least of all Coffman who retired a year ago after 40 years as director of the game, doubted Jacobs' "best" would be quite adequate. Hadn't he faithfully fulfilled a self-effacing assistant's job to the aging Coffman, now 83, for 17 years?

"MY HOPE," said Johnson, "is to maintain the game on the standards Bill Coffman set as founder and first managing director."

Jacobs realized that hope in the 41st East-West game last Dec. 31, the first one under his direction. That game earned $248,630.09 for the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children. Jacob's financial report right down to the penny was typical of all East-West game financial statements.

SINCE INCEPTION of the East-West game in 1925 every penny earned has been turned over to the hospital, specifically $5,021,298.09. No coach or player in the game known as Football's Finest Hour ever has been paid a salary, fee or bonus of any kind.

There have been many memorable East-West games but the one in 1953 epitomized its purpose. Dick Batten, once a patient in the San Francisco Shriners Hospital, became an outstanding lineman at the University of Pacific and played in the 1953 East-West game.

"To be associated with a game that has done so much for children is a rare privilege," said Jacobs, a native San Franciscan who has been a leader in charitable and civic enterprises since retiring from the wholesale produce business in 1949.

A GRADUATE of the University of California in the class of 1919, Jacobs still is a loyal Cal rooter at Big Games.

"In half a century I've missed only two Big Games," said Jacobs. "In 1918 I was in service as a Naval Aviation Cadet. In 1962 I was in Europe."

HIS KNOWLEDGE of football isn't entirely that of a spectator. He played the game when he attended Lowell High. But it was rugby.

"I was too light for varsity stuff at Cal," said Jacobs who is no lightweight, however, in following Bill Coffman as managing director of the East-West game, the 42nd of which will be played in Kezar Stadium this Dec. 31.

Dallas Fans May Be Looking Ahead

How about the Dallas Cowboys and the Kansas City Chiefs in the Super Bowl, the game that will decide the world's championship?

Of course there are two games in the way of such a meeting but if it did come about, it would mean something Dallas fans have talked about for seven years.

The Kansas City Chiefs, you see, were first the Dallas Texans of the American Football League. They were competition for the Cowboys in 1960 when Dallas got into the National Football League.

Lamar Hunt organized the Texans when he organized the American Football League. He did it because he couldn't get into the NFL.

For three seasons the Texans vied with the Cowboys for the pro football dollar in Dallas. Finally, Hunt moved his franchise to Kansas City and named the team the Chiefs.

He said he had become convinced that two pro clubs could not operate successfully here, especially with the territory saturated by television.

All the time the two clubs operated here there was clamor — on the Texans' side — for a game between the two. The Cowboys wouldn't give it a tumble. For that matter, none of the NFL clubs were playing the AFL boys.

But came 1966 and the two leagues merged. The winners are scheduled to clash Jan. 15 at Los Angeles.

So, the Kansas City Chiefs were Western Division winners in the AFL and will play Buffalo at Buffalo Jan. 1 for the league championship.

Dallas won the Eastern Conference title of the NFL and will clash with Green Bay at Dallas Jan. 1 for the league championship.

Now suppose Kansas City and Dallas win. That would set up the long awaited game between the Dallas Texans (Chiefs) and the Cowboys.

Clint Murchison Jr., owner of the Cowboys may have been thinking about that when the Cowboys returned from New York Sunday night, after clinching the Eastern Conference title over the weekend. Five thousand people turned out to greet the Cowboys.

Over the loud speaker came the words of Murchison: "Welcome to Dallas, former home of the Kansas City Chiefs."

THE FOOTBALL BREADLINE

These weary, bedraggled folks with bedspreads, beds and overnight bags are the American version of the breadline—the football ticket line. These are just a portion of over 6,000 eager beaver fans that came last night to wait for tickets to the Dallas-Green Bay NFL title game Jan. 1 in Dallas. The crowd swelled to 60,000 early today and created one of Dallas' greatest traffic jams since Texas become a state. Story on page 41) (AP Wirephoto)

Stram Top Coach Praises Veterans

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Kansas City's Hank Stram, named AFL Coach of the Year by The Associated Press, says leadership by his veterans headed by co-captain Jerry Mays was a major factor in his team's fast start toward the AFL Western crown.

"This honor is very gratifying," Stram said yesterday, "but really it's a great compliment to Lamar Hunt, my squad and my coaches.

"The leadership of Mays and my veteran players like Chris Burford was a great contribution. It started at the beinning of training camp.

"Things went so well we were able to put in more plays in camp. Our offense was much farther along after the exhibition games than at any other time in club history," Stram said.

"Luck played a part, too," he said. "Staying healthy is as important as anything else you do when you win it. Len Dawson had a great year because he was healthy all the way."

The 42-year-old Stram, the only coach the Chiefs have ever had, is recognized as one of football's most astute coaches, inventor of the triple stack defense, the moving pocket and double tight end on offense and the man who has gotten the most points out of play-action passes.

Hockey Boss Stays Firm, Gets Players

A Springfield radio station (WACE) quoted General Manager Ray Miron of the Tulsa, Okla., Oilers as saying he is sending three players to Shore.

"I hope the Indians will not have too difficult a time finding jobs when they get home," Shore said.

Full Slate Of Coast Cage Games Tonight

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Trojans lost to Iowa State, 89-68, last night as Don Smith scored 14 points for the winners. Bill Hewitt led USC with 17.

In an other game involving West Coast teams, the University of Pacific, playing steadily but unspectacularly, ground out a 89-54 victory over Portland University.

Claremont-Mudd edged past the Cal Aggies, 62-59, as Pat Hagiware hit two field goals in the last 25 seconds.

In a full slate of games tonight, California is at Iowa, Stanford at Illinois, Oregon at Hawaii, Washington State at Idaho, Portland at UOP, San Jose State at Nevada and Seattle at Evansville.

And at a doubleheader at Oakland Arena, Providence will play University of San Francisco and Missouri will do battle with Santa Clara.

Michigan State Quint Is Upset By Young Loyola

It was the first setback of the season for the Spartans from the Big Ten Conference, who came into town with a 4-0 record and favored by 10 points.

The victory boosted New Orleans Loyola to a 6-0 record. The Wolves are the only undefeated team among the major Southern independents.

Barry Has Firm Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Barry of San Francisco maintained a firm hold on the National Basketball Assn. scoring leadership last week with 1,200 points and a 38.7 average, according to statistics released today by the NBA.

Wilt Chamberlain, second in scoring with 786 points, improved his league-leading field goal percentage to .692 and his winning rebound total to 763, a 23.9 per game average. Nate Thurmond of San Frandisco is second with 673 rebounds for a 21.7 average.

Barry recaptured the free throw percentage lead with an tello of Philadelphia. Guy Rodgers of Chicago still leads in assists, though Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson closed the gap somewhat. Rodgers has 11.2 assists per game and Robertson has 11.0.

AWARD FOR NAT FLEISCHER

Tiger Is Fighter Of Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Two nice old men of boxing, 37-year-old Dick Tiger of Nigeria and Nat Fleischer, a 79-year-old globe-trotting editor and official, were named today to receive the two major awards of the Boxing Writers Assn.

Tiger, the newly crowned light heavyweight champion and one of the oldest fighters ever to win a world crown, was chosen Fighter of the Year for his upset, rallying victory over 30-year-old Jose Torres last Friday night. He will receive the Edward J. Neil plaque for the second time. Tiger won it first in 1962.

Fleischer, editor and publisher of Ring Magazine and an official at more than 1,000 fights in all parts of the world, was picked for the James J. Walker Award for "long and meritorious service to boxing."

Tiger, the first former middleweight champion to win the light heavyweight title in 63 years, beat out three other champions — middleweight Emile Griffith, heavyweight Cassius Clay and lightweight Carlos Ortiz — for the annual award.

Beaten for his middleweight title by welterweight king Emile Griffith at the Garden last April 25, Tiger spotted Torres, the defending light heavyweight champion, age, height, reach and weight —175 pounds to 167.

Tiger said he felt stronger at 167 pounds and said he had trouble making the middleweight limit of 160 pounds when he lost to Griffith. It was the second time he lost the middleweight title.

He first won it from Gene Fullmer in 1962, lost it to Giardello in 1963 and regained it from Giardello in 1965.

The Neil trophy is named in honor of The Associated Press sports writer who was killed while reporting the Spanish Civil War.

Fleischer, a former president of the Boxing Writers Association, took off on another of his long jaunts after he had been voted the Walker trophy, named in honor of the late mayor of New York.

He will officiate as a judge at the world flyweight title fight in Bangkok Thailand, Dec. 30 between Scotland's Walter McGowan and Thailand's Hartchai Choinoi.

The noted boxing authority estimates he has written more than 50,000,000 words on boxing in books, newspapers and magazines, including the authoritative Ring Record Book and Boxing Encyclopedia.

Fleischer received an award in 1943 "for long and meritorious service" from the BWA but that was before it was known as the Walker award.

Marines, Harding Gophers Win Tourney Cage Games

Marin's Marines and the Harding Gophers annexed victories in the San Rafael Recreation Department Adult Christmas Basketball Tournament at Davidson School yesterday.

Marin's Marines, paced by Bill Walkie's 24 points, trounced Native Sons, 65-51, in a B game as Bob DeRosa had 18 for the Sons. In a C-I game, the Gophers sneaked past Fairchild, 54-50.

After completion of first-round play, Brookline Electric, San Francisco Theological Seminary, McGraw Hill Book Company, Green Mill Inn and J Barth and Company are division leaders in the San Rafael Recreation Department Adult Basketball League.

Brookline beat out Brandon Tire for the A League lead with a perfect 5-0 mark. Brandon was 4-1 while the San Rafael Teachers were 3-2.

McGraw Hill had a perfect 5-0 record in the C-I league, followed by Golden Gate Baptist Seminary at 4-1. Green Mill Inn and J. Barth tied for the C-II lead with 4-1 records, followed by Marin Kelly at 3-2.

John Osborne leads A scoring with 85 points for a 17-point average, followed by Brad Bush of Mill Valley Boys Club and Don Hanson of Stop and Go Market, both with 81 points and a 16.2 average.

Vern Alexander of the San Francisco Seminary has a big lead in B scoring with 53 points for a 13-3 average, followed by Roy Kenny of Indian Valley with 41 and Ted Peck of the Seminary with 40.

John Silver of McGraw Hill has a wide spread in C-II scoring with 85 points for a 17-point average. Next best is Joe McGrath of J. Barth with 67 points for a 13.5 average.

Redwood Class B Cagers Triumph

Redwood's "Bees" were paced by Roger Smith with 15 points and Skip Corsini with 14.

But the Tomales varsity basketballers turned the tables on the Redwood junior varsity as Mike Dellepere pushed through 32 points to lead his teammates to a 61-50 victory. Tom Nicholson was high for Redwood with 24 markers.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Claim That Bad Debt On This Year's Report

By PETER JAMES WIKEL, C. P. A.

Do you have some bad debts you are never going to collect? If so, do something now to prove they are uncollectible and claim the bad debt on his year's tax return.

Wikel

Loans to relatives or friends can be deducted as bad debts. However, they are always given very close scrutiny and you should be prepared to prove you have made every reasonable effort to collect and that it was in no way, shape or form, a gift.

You cannot get a bad debt deduction simply because you do not choose to force collection. Turn those bad accounts over to your attorney or collection agency for action. Do it now if you want to deduct the bad debts this year.

Your bad debts are deductible if:

1. A valid debt was made in 1966 or existed Jan. 1, 1966 and something happened in 1966 that made you believe the debt never will be collected.

2. The amount of the bad debt must have been included in your income, or been a part of your capital. You cannot have a bad debt deduction for uncollectible wages, fees, rents, etc. If you are a merchant and have a bad debt arising from sales or services, you cannot deduct the bad debt unless you have included the sale in income.

If you are in business your business bad debts are deducted together with your other business expenses on separate Schedule C of the tax return.

If your bad debt is a personal debt the deduction is made on separate Schedule D of the tax return as a short term capital loss. Such losses cannot be deducted from other income in an amount over $1,000 a year. However, they can be deducted from capital gains in any amount.

If you have a bad debt loss of more than $1,000, claim $1,000 for 1966 and carry the balance over to 1967. Your deduction is limited to not more than $1000 a year. You can take it all in any year you have capital gains to cover it.

If your loss is $2,000 or more, you can deduct $1,000 from each return.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Don't Sell Just To Cut Mortgage

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We own a house with a mortgage of $20,000. Our blue chip stocks pay us $1,700, my salary is $18,000 and we have two fine children. Currently our mortgage interest is at a higher rate than the return on our stocks. Should we sell the latter to reduce the interest charges?" R. H.

A. You are a very fortunate man in your family and in your finances, and I congratulate you. Since you seem relatively young and have taken good care of your money, I see no reason to sell sound stocks at present depressed levels in order to decrease your mortgage. I happen to believe that in spite of the best efforts of our government, inflation may be checked, but it will never be halted. If I am correct, it is good policy to maintain a debt that you can carry comfortably and pay off years hence with cheaper dollars. And conversely, your shares over the same period should increase in value.

Q. "I am a widow lady aged 60—with $20,000 from my husband's estate. I will also get a check for $230 a month for life, provided I don't marry again. I sell Avon cosmetics and make around $60 a month doing so. I would like to invest the $20,000 which is now in the savings bank. My brother-in-law, a banker, suggests $2,000 each in American Telephone, General Electric, Borden Co., Standard Oil of New Jersey. Is this a wise investment the way things are today?" J. G.

A. I should be delighted to have some money in your brother-in-law's bank. He's obviously a sound and conservative man. I would follow his advice, with one exception. I suggest you leave $10,000 in your savings account and divide the remainder of your money among the stocks he advises. If you do that, you will be half in cash and half in stocks, a prudent position in an uncertain market.

Hewlett-Packard Says Sales Up

PALO ALTO — Hewlett-Packard Co. has reported record sales and earnings for the fiscal year ended Oct. 31.

Sales totaled $203,340,000, an increase of 24 per cent over 1965; net earnings increased from $13,678,000 in 1965 to $17,445,000, a gain of 28 per cent.

The 1966 earnings equaled $1.42 a share, compared with $1.12 a share in 1965.

Net Income Report Made By Airlines

LOS ANGELES — National Airlines has reported a net income of $1,346,000 for November. Net income equaled 32 cents per share, compared to 36 cents per share last November.

Operating revenues for the month were $15,512,000 — up 12 per cent over the same period last year.

Food Processing Machinery Firm Moves To San Rafael

Among recent additions and changes in the East San Rafael commercial area, FPM Co., a firm specializing in the design, sale and manufacture of food processing machinery, has moved from Santa Rosa to 75 Castro Boulevard (formerly known as Railroad Avenue).

Owner is Garnett Featherstone, who has taken up residence in San Rafael.

This is the location formerly occupied by SK Marine Sales and Service of Louis Beaubier and Joseph Sittenauer, who now have new quarters in the Glenlee Building at 115 Bellam Boulevard, with twice as much space for displaying and servicing boats.

Also moved to the Glenlee Building is San Rafael Body and Paint Shop. Owner Don Couch has likewise doubled his former space, which was on Second Street across from United Market. Already located in this building was A and H Auto Parts. All of the foregoing leases were handled by Mosk Associates.

And right across the street from the Mosk office will be the exit from Merritt Pollock's new coin-operated U-Kleen-It Auto Wash, now under construction and expected to open by the end of January. Entrance is at 59 Castro Avenue.

Proprietor Richard Hobbs features foreign and American automotive alterations and repair, engine analysis and gas and electric welding. He, by the way, is the owner of the 1932 Ford roadster featured in the current moving picture, "Hot Rod Hullabaloo." He designed and built the dragster in Washington, D.C., where the picture was filmed and where he had a garage at the time. He supplied the producer with seven cars in all, maintained them and did most of the stunt driving in the film.

NOW IN MARIN as an interior designer is Georges Lebugle, who until recently had been in business since 1948. He has moved to 23 Manor Road in Greenbrae and is a brother of restaurateur and former Marin resident Robert Charles (Lebugle). Decorator Lebugle also maintained a branch in Tangiers, Morocco, where he decorated the summer palace of Sultan Ben Arafa and several other imposing structures. He is now directing his efforts toward French contemporary decor in private homes.

THREE MARIN MEN have received certified public accountant certificates from the State Board of Accountancy: Thomas G. Kennedy, 261 Alameda de la Loma, Novato; Reginald H. Leighton, 1511 Buchanan Street, Novato, and James L. Robel, 425 Robin Drive, Corte Madera.

NEW ASSISTANT MANAGER at Wells Fargo Bank's Mill Valley office is Frederick S. Allen Jr., who comes here from the bank's Brentwood office in South San Francisco, where he has been assistant manager since last February. He succeeds Monte Robinson, who has been made manager of the Crystal Springs office in San Mateo.

Allen

NOW ON THE sales staff at the Terra Linda office of Gallagher-Sturiale Realty are Kay (Montero) Etienne of Fairfax and Harold West of Terra Linda, formerly with Frank Howard Allen and Co.

PHILLIP A. BARTO of Art Processors, Sausalito, is new president of the 18-month-old Sign Contractors Assn. of Marin County. He replaces Rad Ingram of Marin Sign Co. Kenneth Goodall of Custom Craft Engraving Co., San Rafael, is new secretary, replacing Perry Harper of Harper Mobile Signs.

Market Closes Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today, breaking a string of four straight declines. Trading was moderate.

Stocks were lower in early trading but they cut their losses gradually and by noon were invading plus territory.

The gain was small but was a reversal of the downtrend that had persisted through the last four sessions.

Whirlpool, Magnavox and American Airlines were in the running for the day's most-active stock.

Airlines showed strength with Eastern up more than 2 points and Pan American, American and United ahead more than a point.

Chemicals also were in the vanguard of the rally, Air Reduction and Eastman Kodak gaining about 2 points.

SCM, ex-dividend, advanced more than 3 points.

Gains of more than 2 points were posted by Braniff Airways, Collins Radio, Scientific Data, and Texas Gulf Sulphur.

Airline Speeds Freight To Asia

WASHINGTON — American Airlines has announced that within a month it will have committed one-third of its entire jetfreighter fleet towards supporting the military airlift to Vietnam.

American will provide two daily roundtrip flights with top priority goods for Vietnam and other vital Pacific points. The monthly total freight lift will exceed 10 million ton miles, the airline noted.

Greyhound Chief To Crocker Board

SAN FRANCISCO — Gerald H. Trautman, 54-year-old president and chief executive officer of the Greyhound Corp., has been elected to the board of directors of Crocker-Citizens National Bank.

As a director of the bank he succeeds Fred W. Ackerman, chairman of the board of the Greyhound Corp., who had served as a director of Crocker-Citizens since January, 1941, and as a member of the bank's executive committee from September 1942 to March 1966.

Stock Dividend Declared By Bank

SAN FRANCISCO — A 10 per cent stock dividend has been declared by directors of Crocker-Citizens National Bank.

The dividend will be paid March 24, 1967, to holders of record March 7, subject to the approval of supervisory authorities and the approval by Crocker-Citizens shareholders of a corresponding increase in the capital stock of the bank, at their annual meeting March 7.

Consumer Restraint Playing Powerful Role In Economy

NEW YORK (AP)—Consumer restraint is now playing a powerful role in slowing the American economy. Many purchases are being postponed. Lower-priced items are becoming more attractive.

This change has been developing undramatically for many months. There have been no statements, no announcements. But the evidence is obvious: There is a growing tendency toward a buyer's rather than a seller's market.

Although higher than last year, Christmas sales in some stores are still not as high as had been expected.

Automobile dealers are complaining of lower sales, and all automobile manufacturers have cut back production. Sales of luxury products and big-ticket items are not up to expectations in many areas.

Some of the major appliance manufacturers have scaled down their expectations for 1967 and have, in fact, announced sizable production cutbacks of such items as home laundry equipment and refrigerators.

Furniture sales are off, related perhaps to the depression in housing. House construction has fallen to one of the lowest rates in many years, the result primarily of high interest rates.

A big exception seems to be color television set sales, which manufacturers say are booming. Even so, one of the major manufacturers has laid off some workers at one plant.

Consumer confidence has been on the wane throughout the year. The highly regarded University of Michigan Consumer Study found that at this time a year ago confidence was at a very high peak. It has dropped steadily since then.

Why? Perhaps because of all the cautionary talk of inflation, recession, higher taxes and escalation in Vietnam. Perhaps also it is a straight dollars and cents matter — that the less the consumer has to spend the less confidence he has in spending it.

A study by the National Industrial Conference Board shows that there was very little increase this year in the consumer's discretionary purchasing power; that is, in the amount left over after essentials were paid for.

The board attributed this slow growth to factors such as a decrease in disposable income, tight money, and a speedup in the withholding of personal income taxes.

A slowdown isn't all bad, however. For a time it might make life a bit less pleasant than before. But a slowdown offers hope in correcting the economic imbalances that have produced pickpocket inflation.

Today is Wednesday, Dec. 21, the 355th day of 1966 with 10 to follow.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Mars and Jupiter. The evening star is Saturn.

Russian dictator Josef Stalin was born on this day in 1879.

On this day in history:

In 1620, the Pilgrims set foot for the first time on American soil at Plymouth, Mass.

In 1942, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the validity of six-week divorces being granted throughout the state of Nevada.

In 1944, horse racing was banned in the United States for the duration of World War II.

In 1953, ex-Premier Mossadegh of Iran was convicted of attempting to foment and lead a revolt against the Shah.

A Thought for the Day — American humorists and writer Mark Twain said: "Work consists of what ever a body is obliged to do. Play consists of whatever a body is not obliged to do."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

WINNING BRIDGE

Uninformative Bidding Keeps Opponents In Dark

You are usually advised to tell your partner all about your hand during the bidding, and this is sound advice for most hands.

Occasionally, however, you get better results by saying as little as possible about your hand.

TEAM BID

When today's hand was played a month ago in the Team Selection Tournament in Pittsburgh, most players opened the South hand with one club.

North responded in hearts and became declarer at four hearts.

In all of these cases East opened a spade, and the defenders easily won a spade, a diamond and two trumps. Down one.

The 5-4-2-2 distribution is poor for notrump, and the spade stopper is too sketchey for most tastes. As a result, however, South's club suit was never mentioned.

SAW NO REASON

West opened the queen of diamonds to the ace. Since East knew nothing about a long suit in the South hand he saw no reason to tackle spades.

He returned a diamond to South's king, and there went the defense.

BAD NEWS

South led the ace of hearts, discovering the bad news, and began to run the clubs. West ruffed the fourth club, while dummy got rid of a spade.

West returned a spade, but South could afford to take the ace of spades and get to his hand with the king of trumps. He then led his fifth club, discarding the last spade from dummy.

East could have defeated the contract by leading a spade at the second trick, and East would have done so if he had known about the long clubs. South's uninformative bidding kept East in the dark just long enough to bring four hearts home.

DAILY QUESTION

You have opened with one club, and partner has bid one spade.

♠ Q 2
♥ A K 10 8
♦ K 7
♣ K Q 9 6 5.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two hearts.

This "reverse" bid shows a strong hand, and also describes your distribution. The alternative is a jump to 2 no trump, which conceals the hearts and also slightly overstates your strength.

Car Packs Wallop Of Falling Concrete Block

We'd head for the nearest cover, frozen with fear. Even drunks would turn cold sober. Somehow, the tremendous lethal power of weights falling vertically arouses instinctive fear, respect and awe.

But switch that around so that the rain of death runs horizontally, and the fear seems to vanish. We face this horizontal hailstorm daily on Highway 101 and other freeways across the nation.

The only difference is that the flying missiles are generally restricted to the freeway corridor, and each missile generally stays within its allotted 10 or 12-foot lane. With that assurance, we boldly nose our own missile down Highway 101, changing lanes, ignoring danger signals, trying to outfox the next missile.

Some drivers, instead of remaining sober, reinforce themselves with liquid refreshments to hurry their missiles along.

We forget or we fail to realize that each speeding automobile is as heavy as a ton of concrete and is traveling faster than a concrete block falling from the skies.

In 1965, some 51,000 Americans died on the highways, with California leading the way. More than four million were injured.

But who cares about figures? Until you or a family member or a close friend has a brush with a flying missile, those figures are only dry statistics.

They spring to life only when one of the 51,000 turns out to be your husband, wife, father or child.

Ask any veteran highway patrolman and he'll tell you. Those figures are not dry statistics; they're carved in blood, tears, and gore.

An officer knocks on a door, wondering how to break the news. A young housewife and mother opens the door to welcome her husband to dinner. The officer stands helplessly as the beaming young woman disintegrates into a raving maniac as news of her husband's death sinks in.

A businessman has a couple of drinks for the road. His car drifts over the center line. There's a screech of tires, an ear-splitting crash, and then silence, broken only by the gurgles of a dying man choking in his own blood. Wrapped Christmas gifts are scattered among the debris. Another home will have a cold fireplace and empty socks at Christmas.

This was last year. This year, there will be more, with the Christmas and New Year weekends contributing the biggest share.

Late Flash: North Pole

On advice of his physician, Santa Claus is seriously considering by-passing Marin County, California, according to usually well-informed sources.

"Fine folks live there, but they're having a terrible, wet winter, and I can't let you get your clothes all soaked and then go flying through the sky in all that wind," the North Pole doctor reportedly told Mr. Claus.

Mr. Claus has called a meeting of his top aides and a decision is expected imminently. A contingency plan has been drawn up, reportedly involving the air-lifting of dozens of brownies and elves.

Reports from Marin County are that the populous remains calm.

Tax Exemptions For Veterans Expected To Get Close Check

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—During the long and continuing discussions concerning tax reform, which is another term for attempting more equity in raising revenue, little has been said concerning the possibility of completely eliminating the veterans exemption from the property tax.

At the present time, California veterans are entitled to exemption of $1,000 on the assessment used by cities and counties for taxation purposes.

In 1966, a total of 712,451 exemptions were in effect. This exempted veterans, according to figures issued by the State Board of Equalization, from paying $58,680,000 in taxes to city, county and district governments.

THIS IS a decrease from the peak year of 1962, when veterans were freed from paying $75 million in local taxes.

With the growing burden on the ordinary taxpayer, and the demand for some equalization of tax payments in particular with respect to property taxes, there has been some small talk of wiping out the exemption provisions entirely.

The statewide taxpayers' conference, which is a part of the California Taxpayers' Assn., has recommended that the state legislature review all classes of tax exemptions "to eliminate all possible."

THIS IN ITSELF gives the legislature opportunity to go into the veteran exemption with the weight of a state-wide organization devoted to economy in government behind the possible elimination.

Laws providing for the veteran exemption were adopted in California after World War I.

The exemption at that time was not significant in state financing. The law was pushed by veteran organizations, and these organizations had more lobbying power then than they have now. While other states gave their veterans a cash bonus, California provided for a continuing bonus in the form of partial exemption from paying property taxes for as long as the state law is in effect.

THE SUM RESULT has been a cost of hundreds of millions of dollars to California taxpayers for a bonus which normally could have been paid off in cash.

Subsequent wars and extensions by the California legislature to apply the exemptions to veterans involved in foreign altercations, plus the more extensive use of man-power by the armed forces, sent the exemption total to a new high in 1959, with 1,195,257 exemptions granted by local governments.

Also, the legislature was generous in applying the exemption to veterans from other states of the union, whether they had received a bonus from another state or not.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Juvenile Hall Work Praised

Editor, Independent-Journal:

This summer the I-J ran a contest series designed to alert the reading public to the positive behavior of Marin youth. I found this optimistic view of yours a refreshing relief from those maudlin soothsayers who bewail modern "teens" and predict the doom of youth without decency. They point to the monotonous journalistic crime wave that daily discourages, disenchants and frightens the reading public.

We at Marin County Juvenile Hall, who daily deal with the troubled and troublesome youth who are the anonymous subjects of newsy vignettes, do not share this pessimism. Children in Juvenile Hall are in a state of personal crisis and, at first blush, appear egocentric, selfish and concerned only with "I" and not "they." Given the right circumstances, even the most difficult of children can perform unselfish acts. These children have no public relations man to prepare a positive image; therefore, I feel certain acts by children at Marin County Juvenile Hall deserve public recognition.

Some requested that money allotted for their Christmas present be spent on others in Juvenile Hall who have no families.

One young man suggested at our "Town Hall Meeting" that the "kids" plan an evening honoring the volunteers that have assisted over the past year.

In these examples, we find a growing attitude of concern for others. Juvenile Hall has been blessed by the services of numerous Marinites who value youth and community services. They have dedicated countless hours of effort to a most difficult group of children. Such organizations as the Juvenile Court Auxiliary, the San Rafael Optimists, the Elks Club, Sertoma Club, Sausalito Salvage Shop, "YWCA Wives" and church groups have contributed time and money toward the arduous and frustrating task of assisting alienated youth.

Talented individuals have given their time to tutoring, teaching crafts, driving in the Auxiliary motor pool or supervising recreational activities. Others have found employment for youth, given vocational counseling, or "were there as friends." Our volunteers have shared the frustrations of staff and children and wondered, "Do we really help . . . Is it worth it . . . Are we spoiling these children?" The answer lies in small gains. When a child who has thought of nothing but himself says, "I want to help too." He has learned from the example set by the volunteers of Marin County.

On behalf of the staff of the Marin County Probation Department, I wish to publicly thank all of you who have shared in this community responsibility.

Vietnam Support Is Challenged

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial statement of Dec. 7 that "Every other major combat action in which the U.S. was engaged has had nearly 100 per cent support on the home front" cannot go unchallenged. In fact, with the exception of World War II after Pearl Harbor, every other U.S. war—declared or undeclared—has had a large and honorable loyal opposition.

In particular, many of our most revered forebears spoke out against what they considered unwarranted U.S. intervention in the affairs of other peoples: the Mexicans in 1845-8, the American Indians during and after the Civil War, the Chinese in 1900, and the Filipinos in 1902.

Leading writers such as Twain, Howells and Lowell opposed our expedition to Mexico. Thoreau was jailed when he protested by refusing to pay his taxes, an experience that inspired his "On the Duty of Civil Disobedience." Men like regular Army Major Wynkoop condemned massacres of friendly Indians by militia forces. When the U.S. suppressed the Philippine war of independence, historian Henry Commager reports, "With extraordinary unanimity poets, novelists, historians, and philosophers championed 'anti-imperialism' and denounced 'the unjust war'."

Loyal citizens who oppose our intervention in Vietnam are serving their country when they support measures calculated to effect a negotiated peace, notably unconditional suspension of our bombing as advocated by the Pope and the National Council of Churches. I urge backing the Marin Democratic Central Committee on this point in letters to the President. The courage of our fighting men can inspire those of us who seek an honorable peace.

Missy's Owners Are To Blame

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mrs. Robert L. Rapp's letter in tonight's (Dec. 14) Independent-Journal headed "Sad Experience With Family Dog":

I am horrified at Mrs. Rapp's rather feeble statement that "Missy is a rather large dog and impossible to fence in . . ."

If Mrs. Rapp can't erect a Missy-proof fence, she should keep a smaller dog that she can cope with. What is the matter with a kennel and a good sized line run with a wire top? I suspect that Mrs. Rapp's trouble is that she feels guilty about confining Missy all day because she is too lazy to take her out for proper exercise.

Better still, why can't the daughter, who is said to be "quite fond of her dog," take the dog for a walk before going to school? I have kept dogs for more than 40 years; when I was a school girl I took them for a walk every morning — (and after that walked two miles to the bus stop — children had legs in those days). Now I have a full-time and very busy job and my dogs have the run of a big fenced garden all day — but I still take them for a walk every morning before I go to work.

No one could be a greater animal lover than I, and I am filled with disgust for these people who cannot be bothered to give their dogs proper care and supervision. Apart from the traffic hazard, these dogs wandering loose will foul the sidewalks and/or other people's gardens.

I wonder if Mrs. Rapp's dog is spayed, or if she will wander loose when she is in season and produce litter after litter of mongrels to be given to homes where they, in turn will wander the streets until they are killed or maimed as Missy was.

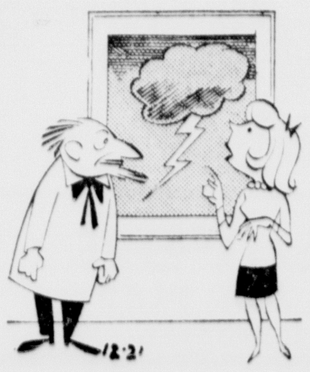
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

AN ARTIST whose paintings are attracting more and more attention these days specializes in canvases of wild storms at sea, oncoming hurricanes, and the like. A young female student came to his one-man show in Cleveland recently, recognized him from the newspaper pictures, and came over to tell him, "I think you're wonderful—but what a shame you've had such rotten luck with the weather!"



QUICKIES:

Advice to wives by matrimonial expert Francis Duffy: The next time your husband complains about a necktie you've picked out for him, give him a sock!

Visitor: "What happened to the burglars who broke into your house last night?" Homeowner: "My wife's relatives hollered 'WE were here first' and chased them out."

A New Yorker scout was within earshot when a customer asked the proprietress of a seashore resort news kiosk, "Do you have any surfing magazines-" She nodded cheerfully and produced a copy of the Atlantic Monthly.

Should Romney Falter, GOP Has Percy In The Background

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va.—Sub-surface opinion on the 1968 Republican Presidential nominee is shifting among some powerful GOP leaders.

That there is a newly visible movement among Republican Governors to hold off from Gov. George Romney of Michigan—not because they doubt he will be a candidate but because they want to be more sure that he is going to prove to be the best choice.

That Sen.-elect Charles Percy of Illinois comes increasingly into the political conversation of the GOP governors because he offers a strong and acceptable alternative if Romney falters or fades during the coming months.

THESE NEW currents of political opinion began to emerge at the recent meeting of the Republican governors in Colorado Springs and are apparent here at the National Governors Conference.

They don't mean that Romney hasn't substantial support among the moderate GOP governors; he has.

What the shifting tide means is that the normally pro-Romney governors want to have some doubts removed before they decide to throw their support unqualifiedly to the Michigan Governor.

IT ALSO MEANS that the rise of Percy as a national figure, by toppling the formidable Sen. Paul Douglas, gives the moderate forces a fall-back candidate they could embrace with enthusiasm—and they are gratified that Percy now occupies this spot.

Most of the Republican governors are political moderates and most of them feel that Romney would well represent their views.

But some anxieties have developed among them.

None of these anxieties is massive or unremovable. But they are beginning to be talked about:

There is fear that Romney will take too long to make up his mind whether he wants to try for the Presidency and that in the process of this "long, hard look," as he calls it, he will leave the impression either of insincerity or ultra-coyness. Romney is sincere and is not being coy. But it is going to strain political credulity if his "long, hard look" becomes too long and too hard.

SEVERAL OF THE governors see that Romney is beginning to bore the press, particularly those who cover him quite considerably. Here and at Colorado Springs, they have raised this with some of the national correspondents and asked why.

They were told that Romney often gives repetitious and unresponsive answers to a wide variety of questions. To many he gets ultra-moralistic and evangelistic even when he is making obvious comments. Their worry is that, if Romney bores the press, he may bore the nation.

The other anxiety is that Romney is not showing evidence of speaking out on national and international matters. Nobody expects him to have a ready and complete answer to everything, but not a few of his potential supporters feel he ought to be displaying some creative thinking or to be articulating fresh ideas which would grow out of better use of competent staff work.

If he hasn't delved into national problems because of preoccupation elsewhere, some wonder whether he will be able to do so in time.

THE PRO-ROMNEY governors are hearing laudatory reports of the impression Percy made in his first press conference in Washington.

The tough-minded Washington press corps is almost unanimous in viewing Percy as a welcome breath of fresh air, a politician who knows what he thinks and can say it. The governors don't expect Percy to go after the '68 nomination—but they have him in mind should he be needed.

National Crime Center Planned

By ROBERT S. ALLEN AND PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The FBI is establishing a National Crime Information Center.

In a dramatic move to intensify the war against organized crime, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover plans to open this anti-crime facility in the capital by the end of January.

To start with, its principal function will be to provide a speedy exchange of crime information between federal, state and local law enforcement authorities.

THE NEW anti-crime agency is being set up under a 1930 statute empowering the FBI to exchange information with state and local police. The undertaking has White House approval.

Law enforcement agencies of seven states and eight cities already have completed arrangements with the FBI to use the center when it opens next month. They are:

New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Georgia, Texas and California; Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C., Chicago, New Orleans, St. Louis and Los Angeles if it completes its communications hookup in time.

All states and major cities were invited to participate in the proposed information exchange center. It is expected that its success will persuade other states and communities to join.

IN ANTICIPATION of this expansion, the FBI is preparing to open two regional centers on the East and West coasts later in 1967. They will be linked to the national center in Washington by telephone, teletype and radio.

To start with, the West coast center, in a California city still to be selected, will serve law enforcement agencies in that state, Washington, Oregon and Nevada. The East coast headquarters will be in Boston and will link New England states.

At the crime information center in Washington, the FBI will store three types of data in giant computers.

The first type will be identification information regarding individuals sought for felonies. The second will list all stolen vehicles throughout the country. Third, will be data on other identifiable stolen property of more than $500 in value.

STILL ANOTHER type of computer data is to be obtained from the Secret Service. This will deal with information about individuals believed dangerous to the President and Vice President.

When they travel about the country, this information will be communicated to local authorities to enable them to keep such potentially dangerous persons who may be in their area under surveillance.

When the main center goes into operation next month — it will be located temporarily at FBI headquarters in the Justice Department — it will be possible for police in patrol cars in the seven states and eight cities to radio their headquarters and in a matter of minutes obtain information on suspected criminals.

UNDER PRESENT conditions, it takes at least five days to secure such data.

Legislation, including funds for participating states and cities to improve their communication systems, is now being drafted for submission to the new Congress in January.

Tiburon's Transportation Problems Need Novel Approach

Time was when the late Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council held some informative transportation forums. Transportation and parking problems exist all over the Bay Area and each community has its own unique assortment.

A transportation committee that appeals to my imagination is the present ad hoc one which includes some chamber of commerce members and other businessmen looking for "unique and unusual transportation for Tiburon."

NO HOLDS are barred on this committee. In a recent informal meeting they discussed the possibility of an old-fashioned steam engine on the present railroad tracks, but were sobered as it was pointed out the cost of maintenance and equipment could run about $500,000.

Someone brought up a steam tractor which could be used on the roadway. Double-decker buses (maybe Tiburon's should be marine green or sky blue instead of London red, gentlemen?) and horse-drawn trolleys were also talked about. (Tiburon's public works department might want to speak to the maintenance and cleanup problems of the horse-drawn vehicles!) Elephant trains were also mentioned.

Tiburon parks and recreation commission a while back also mentioned its interest in unique and imaginative forms of transportation. Maybe these two groups should get together with their stimulating ideas. Both groups were agreed on one point. Some form of transporting people, say an elephant train, could be used around the shopping area, permitting visitors to leave their cars in a parking lot farther uptown, say near the Safeway store where there is some undeveloped land. This would keep cars from adding to the downtown parking problem, especially on weekends. Expansion of the ferry service could also help keep down the exploding car population.

THE AD HOC committee discussed the desirability of having Main Street landscaped and used as a pedestrian mall. This ideal keeps popping up.

This informal group would welcome suggestions from residents, visitors or anyone, they say. Sounds like a good opportunity to give the imagination free rein. It would seem only fair to invite ideas, not only from residents, but also from visitors who have experienced parking or driving problems on the peninsula. Those who feel so, can drop a note to the Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.

EVENTUALLY, of course, any transportation project would have to be approved by the necessary government entities involved, and someone will have to think about where the money would come from for such a project.

Bermuda was once famous for forbidding automobiles and having horse-drawn carriages and bicycles for transportation. I've always thought it was a charming idea. I once thought we should copy that on the Tiburon Peninsula but there are problems — like where would a housewife put the groceries if she went to the store on her bicycle? And then there are those steep hills. I've seen youngsters ride bikes up streets like Esperanza and Paradise Drive but I will admit I have to get off my bicycle and hike part way on those steep grades—and pause a minute at the top.

TRANSPORTATION has been moving rather slowly on the peninsula for several days, what with landscaping, undergrounding and Pacific Gas and Electric's crews working at three different locations on Tiburon Boulevard and Paradise Drive. Everyone who travels the roads regularly is used to the flagmen by now and the sudden telescoping of two-lane into one-lane roads for short distances has been accomplished in an orderly fashion.

ART BUCHWALD

It Takes A Lot Of Courage To Watch A Pro Football Game

WASHINGTON — My friend Murray is the managing editor of one of the largest newspapers in the country. When the President of the United States gets mad he calls Murray, and Murray just shrugs it off.

My friend Jocko is one of the top criminal lawyers in the United States. In a courtroom he is a tiger, making both judge and jury sit up and listen in hushed respect.

My friend Harry heads a billion-dollar trade association and his word is law when it comes to the censorship of motion pictures.

MY FRIEND Sam is chief of protocol to the most powerful nation in the world, and he is on a first-name basis with almost every head of state.

My friend Sydney is the press secretary to the leader of a country that numbers over 190 million Americans in population.

Last Sunday, Murray, Jocko, Harry, Sam and Sydney were invited over to my house to watch the Washington Redskins play the Dallas Cowboys in living color on TV.

EACH OF THEM said he'd be delighted to come and was looking forward to the afternoon.

At 3:45 p.m. Murray arrived. "It's good you came early," I said. "The game doesn't start until 4."

"I have to leave at 4," Murray said. "I just wanted to see the kickoff."

"But Murray," I said, "you can't leave that early. It's going to be a good game. I'll call your wife and tell her you'll be home at 7."

"Don't do that," he shouted. "She doesn't know I'm here. I hold her I was going out to her a Christmas present."

"WHAT KIND of a man are you," I said, "that you won't even stand up for your rights to watch pro football?"

"I can watch pro football any time I want to," he said angrily. "But I'd rather spend the time carrying beds upstairs and listening to my kids fighting in the living room. Wouldn't anybody?"

Before I could answer, the phone rang. It was Jocko. He was whispering. "I can't get out the door. She says if I got time to go over to your house to watch pro football, I have time to paint the playroom."

"What did you tell her?"

"I said I had only one day a week to relax and I wasn't going to spen dit messing around in the basement."

"WHAT COLOR are you going to paint the playroom?"

"Did you have any trouble with your wife?" I asked him.

"Are you kidding? I have a wonderful wife. Anything I want to do is fine with her. She's a jewel, the dearest woman a man could have."

"That means she wouldn't let you stay?"

Sam was the next one to arrive. He didn't seem to be worried a bit, until the phone rang. "Is Sam there?" his wife wanted to know.

"I'm not sure," I said. "I'll look around."

SAM PICKED up the phone. "All right, all right. A loaf of bread and two quarts of milk. Well, what did you think I went out for?"

Sydney didn't even bother to call, so I found myself watching the game alone. But not for long.

My wife came in and said, "As long as no one is here, you can carry down all the toys from the attic for the Salvation Army."

There may be a lot of hawks in Washington, but when it comes to watching pro football you'll find nothing but doves in every home.
